In the event of a conflict between the terms of this Lease and the terms contained in any attached document, the terms of this Lease shall prevail.

2. Demise. In consideration of Tenant's agreement to pay the Annual Base Rent and all Additional Rent due hereunder and subject to the covenants and conditions hereinafter set forth, Landlord hereby leases unto Tenant, and Tenant does hereby rent from Landlord, the Premises in it's As-Is condition, except as otherwise provided for herein. Tenant shall not take possession of the Premises, or any portion thereof, until any construction as provided for hereunder is substantially completed and all required approvals have been obtained, in accordance with the conditions and covenants set forth in this Lease. In addition thereto, Tenant, and Tenant's agents, contractors, employees, invitees, subtenants and assignees, shall have the right to use, on a non-exclusive basis, and in common with the other tenants of the Building, if any, the Common Areas of the Building (as that term is defined in Section 6.2.4). The Premises and the Building shall be measured in accordance with the Standard Method of Measuring Floor Areas in Office Buildings (ANSI Z65.1- 2017) (as may be updated or amended, the "BOMA Standards"). The Premises cannot be re-measured during the Term or any renewal thereof, except and unless Tenant leases expansion space and the Premises shall only increase by the amount of that expansion space. Landlord shall have no right to relocate the Premises at any time during the Term and any renewals thereof.

3. Term.

3.1 Commencement Date and Term.

3.1.1. This Lease shall be effective as of the Effective Date. The Initial Term of this Lease shall commence on the Commencement Date and expire at midnight on the Lease Expiration Date. The "Delivery Date" shall be the date that Landlord delivers exclusive possession of the Third Floor of the Premises to Tenant after substantial completion of the Tenant Improvements (as hereinafter defined) for the Third Floor and receipt of final unconditional inspection approval and occupancy permit concerning the Third Floor of the Premises from Fairfax County permitting Tenant's lawful occupancy of the Third Floor for Tenant's use (the "Occupancy Permit") in vacant broom clean condition and in compliance with all Applicable Laws (collectively, the "Delivery Condition"). Landlord currently estimates, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause, the Delivery Date to be July 1, 2026 (the "Anticipated Delivery Date"). Promptly after the Commencement Date and Delivery Date are ascertained, Landlord and Tenant shall execute a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit "D" hereto and incorporated herein for all purposes affirming the Commencement Date, the Delivery Date and the Lease Expiration Date. If Landlord does not deliver possession of the Third Floor to Tenant in the Delivery Condition by such Anticipated Delivery Date, Landlord shall not have any liability whatsoever, and, except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, this Lease shall not be rendered void or voidable as a result thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if, as a result of any Tenant Delay(s) (as hereinafter defined), substantial completion of the Tenant Improvements and the subsequent application for and/or receipt of the Occupancy Permit is delayed, then, for purposes of determining the Full Rent Commencement Date (as hereinafter defined), the Delivery Date shall be deemed to be the date (as reasonably determined by Landlord's architect) that the Tenant Improvements would have been substantially completed if such Tenant Delay(s) had not occurred. For purposes herein, the term "substantially complete" or "substantial completion" means that: (i) the construction of the Tenant Improvements (described in Section 36 below) has been completed in accordance with the approved plans therefor based on Exhibits "A" and "A-1" attached hereto and in compliance with all Applicable Laws, so that Tenant can use the Third Floor of the Premises for its intended purposes (minor or insubstantial work, details, or cosmetic items causing immaterial interference to Tenant conducting its ordinary business activities excepted), (ii) the Third Floor has been approved for occupancy by governmental authorities having jurisdiction and a certificate of occupancy has been issued for the Third Floor, (iii) Tenant has ready access to the Third Floor of the Premises through the lobby, hallways and elevators, (iv) the Third Floor is ready for installation of any equipment, furniture, fixtures or decoration that Tenant will install, and (v) all Building systems (including, without limitation, mechanical, electrical, HVAC, plumbing, sprinkler and fire/life safety systems) serving the Premises are in good working order. Landlord shall endeavor to keep Tenant advised as to its progress with regard to the substantial completion of the Third Floor of the Premises by the Anticipated Delivery Date and shall provide Tenant with at least ten (10) business days advance notice of the Delivery Date.

"Tenant Delay(s)" means any actual delay in the performance of the Tenant Improvements or the achievement of substantial completion (and, accordingly, the Delivery Date) to the extent caused, in whole or in part, by any act or omission (where there is a duty to act) of Tenant or its agents, employees, contractors, or representatives, including, without limitation: (i) Tenant's failure to timely furnish information, approvals, or authorizations required by Landlord; (ii) Tenant's failure to timely perform any work or obligations required to be performed by Tenant; (iii) any delay attributable to Tenant's contractors, including their failure to prosecute their work with reasonable diligence; (iv) Tenant's failure to timely apply for, pursue, or obtain any permits, approvals, or inspections required for Tenant's work or otherwise within Tenant's responsibility or control; and (v) any changes requested by Tenant to plans, specifications, or the scope of work after approval thereof.

3.1.2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in the event Landlord fails to deliver exclusive possession of the Third Floor to Tenant in the Delivery Condition by (i) August 1, 2026 (other than due to Tenant Delay(s)), then following the Full Rent Commencement Date, Tenant shall be entitled to receive a day-for-day abatement of Rent (with respect to the Third Floor only) for each day after such date until Landlord delivers exclusive possession of the Third Floor to Tenant in the Delivery Condition, or (ii) October 1, 2026 (other than due to Tenant Delay(s)), then following the Full Rent Commencement Date, Tenant shall be entitled to receive a two (2) day-for-day abatement of Rent (with respect to the Third Floor only) for each day after such date until Landlord delivers possession of the Premises to Tenant in the Delivery Condition, or (iii) by December 1, 2026, Tenant may elect to terminate this Lease upon ten (10) days' written notice to Landlord at any time prior to the Delivery Date and the termination will be effective on the tenth (10th) day after such termination notice, in which event this Lease shall be of no further force and effect; provided, however, if the Delivery Date occurs prior to the end of such ten (10) day period, then Tenant's termination notice shall be deemed to be rescinded and this Lease shall continue in full force and effect (but Tenant shall still be entitled to the abatement of Rent under clause (ii) above. Upon the termination of this Lease under this Section 3.1.2, Landlord shall promptly return to Tenant the prepaid Rent and Security Deposit paid hereunder, and neither party shall have any further liability to the other, except that which expressly survives a termination.

3.2 Option to Extend Lease Term. Provided that (i) there is no Event of Default (as defined herein) then outstanding on the date of Tenant's election hereunder or on the date on which an extension of the Term is to begin pursuant hereto and (ii) Tenant delivers timely written notice (as defined in Section 3.2.1) to Landlord as required herein, Tenant shall have the option to extend the Initial Term of this Lease for all or any reasonably demised portion of the Premises then being leased by Tenant hereunder (which portion shall be identified in Tenant's renewal notice, the "Renewal Premises") for two (2) additional periods of two (2) years each (each a "Renewal Term"), to commence immediately upon the expiration of the Term then in effect.

3.2.1 Tenant's rental of the Renewal Premises during the Renewal Term shall be upon the same terms, covenants and conditions contained in this Lease, except that Tenant shall pay to Landlord as Annual Base Rent that amount equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the "Prevailing Market Rate" for the Renewal Premises, as hereinafter defined (including annual adjustments). For purposes of this Section 3.2, the term "Prevailing Market Rate" shall mean the then-prevailing market rate being charged to tenants for comparable space in comparable office buildings as to size, age and location within the Herndon, Virginia/Dulles Corridor submarket, which rate shall include all market concessions, including without limitation, construction allowances, commissions, a new base year, free rent, and other concessions or inducements consistent with then-prevailing market conditions, and all relevant factors. In order to exercise its option granted herein, Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing of its intent to renew not less than six (6) months prior to the expiration of the Term then in effect. Within fifteen (15) days following the exercise by Tenant of its option to extend the Term, Landlord shall notify Tenant in writing of its determination of the Prevailing Market Rate for the Renewal Term, as reasonably determined by Landlord ("Landlord's Notice"). Within fifteen (15) days after receipt of Landlord's Notice, Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing of Tenant's acceptance or rejection of such rate. . If Tenant shall accept such Prevailing Market Rate, Landlord and Tenant shall enter into an amendment to this Lease acknowledging such renewal and setting forth any terms at variance with the terms of this Lease. If within the fifteen (15) day period, Tenant shall reject such Prevailing Market Rate, then, within fifteen (15) business days after such rejection, Landlord and Tenant shall use their reasonable efforts to agree upon the Prevailing Market Rate. If Landlord and Tenant shall fail to agree upon such Prevailing Market Rate within the fifteen (15) business day period, then Tenant shall either rescind the Renewal Term notice or elect in writing to proceed to a three broker method. If Tenant elects the three broker method or fails to make any election within such fifteen (15) business day period, Landlord and Tenant shall each appoint, within the next ten (10) days, an independent commercial leasing broker licensed in Virginia and having at least ten (10) years of leasing experience in the Northern Virginia/Dulles Corridor commercial office leasing market (the "Renewal Term Brokers"). Such Renewal Term Brokers shall deliver their respective estimates of the Prevailing Market Rate to Landlord and Tenant within ten (10) days after being appointed. If the estimates of the Prevailing Market Rate as quoted by the Renewal Term Brokers are within five percent (5%) of each other, the Prevailing Market Rate shall be deemed to be the average of the estimates presented by the Renewal Term Brokers. If the estimates of the Prevailing Market Rate as quoted by the Renewal Term Brokers differ by more than five percent (5%), then the Renewal Term Brokers shall, within ten (10) days, jointly appoint a third independent commercial leasing broker licensed in Virginia and having at least ten (10) years of leasing experience in the Northern Virginia/Dulles Corridor commercial office leasing market (the "Third Broker") who shall deliver its estimate of the Prevailing Market Rate to Landlord and Tenant within ten (10) days after being appointed. The Prevailing Market Rate shall be deemed to be the determination of the Third Broker, which shall be one of the determinations of the Renewal Term Brokers. The Prevailing Market Rate, as determined under this Section 3.2, shall be conclusive and binding on both Landlord and Tenant. Within thirty (30) days after the final determination of the Prevailing Market Rate, Landlord and Tenant shall enter into an amendment to this Lease acknowledging such renewal and setting forth any terms at variance with the terms of this Lease. Landlord and Tenant shall each pay the fee of the broker designated by them originally and shall split equally the fees of any Third Broker.

3.3 Option to Expand Premises; Right of First Refusal. If Landlord receives a bona fide offer from a prospective third-party tenant to lease any space within the Building (the "Expansion Space") that Landlord is willing to accept (a "Lease Offer"), Tenant shall have a continuous and recurring right of first refusal (the "ROFR") to lease any such space, subject to the following provisions:

(i) Tenant shall have ten (10) business days after receipt of a copy of the Lease Offer to notify Landlord in writing of its election to exercise the ROFR; failure to timely notify Landlord as provided for herein shall constitute a waiver of Tenant's right with respect to such specific Lease Offer; provided, however, if Tenant fails to exercise (or is deemed to have waived) the ROFR and either (a) the Expansion Space in such Lease Offer is still available twelve (12) months after the Lease Offer or (b) with respect to a Lease Offer after the first two (2) Lease Years, the net economic terms (including concessions) offered to a third party are more than five percent (5%) less favorable to Tenant than those set forth in the Lease Offer, then in either event, Landlord shall reoffer the Expansion Space in such Lease Offer to Tenant in accordance with the terms of this Section 3.3.

(ii) with respect to any expansion of the Premises during the first two (2) Lease Years of the Term, whether through exercise of the ROFR or otherwise, the Annual Base Rent for the Expansion Space shall be the same as the then-escalated Annual Base Rent payable under this Lease (as applicable to the Premises), and Tenant shall have the option to apply to the Expansion Space either (a) the same concessions provided to Tenant under this Lease, including any rent abatement and tenant improvement allowance; provided, however, that any such concessions shall be prorated to reflect the portion of the Term remaining as of the commencement date applicable to the Expansion Space, or (b) the concessions set forth in the applicable Lease Offer, which if elected, will mean that the economic terms of the applicable Lease Offer, as prorated by Landlord to reflect any differential in term, if applicable, shall apply to such Expansion Space (and not the economic and prorated concessions under this Lease). For the avoidance of doubt, with respect to any ROFR exercised during the first two (2) Lease Years of the Term, if Tenant elects clause (a) above, the Expansion Space shall be leased on the same terms and conditions set forth in this Lease (with prorated concessions) rather than the terms of the applicable Lease Offer and Tenant shall have no right to the economic or other terms of the applicable Lease Offer except for the right to lease the applicable Expansion Space; provided, however, if Tenant elects clause (b) above, all economic and other terms (including concessions) of the applicable Lease Offer shall apply to such Expansion Space;

(iii) with respect to any expansion of the Premises pursuant to the ROFR after the first two (2) Lease Years of the Term, Tenant shall, subject to the other terms of this Section 3.3, lease the Expansion Space on the same terms and conditions set forth in the Lease Offer; provided, however, that: (a) at Tenant's option, the term applicable to the Expansion Space proposed in the Lease Offer shall be adjusted to run, at minimum, coterminous with the Term applicable to the Premises under this Lease, and (b) any concessions in the Lease Offer shall be adjusted proportionately based on the ratio that the Term of this Lease bears to the term in the Lease Offer;

(iv) Tenant's right to exercise the ROFR shall be conditioned upon three (3) or more years remaining in the Term of this Lease at the time Landlord receives the Lease Offer; provided, however, if less than three (3) years are remaining in the then-existing Term, then in order to exercise the ROFR, Tenant shall, where such option exists, extend the Term pursuant to Section 3.2 of this Lease;

(v) Tenant's right to exercise the ROFR shall not apply to any Lease Offer with respect to spaces in the Building consisting of less than 10,000 rentable square feet.

3.4 Termination Option. At any time following the third (3rd) anniversary of the Full Rent Commencement Date, Tenant shall have the ongoing option to terminate this Lease (the "Early Termination Option"), which Termination Option shall be conditioned upon the cancellation, termination, rescission, or expiration without renewal (collectively, "Early Cancellation") of the "BNATCS" government contract #693KA7-26-D-00003 entered into between Tenant and an agency of the United States Government, including any follow-on contract thereto (the "Government Contract"), which Government Contract is the basis of Tenant's work and operations in the Premises. Tenant may exercise the Early Termination Option by delivering to Landlord prior written notice of termination ("Early Termination Notice") setting forth the date of early termination of this Lease (the "Early Termination Date"), which date shall not be sooner than three (3) months after the date of delivery of the Early Termination Notice.

Concurrently with Tenant's delivery of the Early Termination Notice, Tenant (i) shall provide to Landlord documentation reasonably evidencing Early Cancellation of the Government Contract, it being understood and agreed that if government documentation thereof cannot be provided due to the sensitivity of the work or due to security or other confidential reasons, then Landlord shall accept Tenant's certification thereof in lieu of government documentation and (ii) shall pay to Landlord a termination fee equal to the unamortized transaction costs incurred by Landlord in connection with this Lease, determined from the Full Rent Commencement Date and utilizing an eight percent (8%) per annum interest rate, consisting of Landlord's costs for Tenant Improvements, the Furnishing Allowance, leasing commissions, and any rental abatement (the sum of such costs, the "Termination Fee"). Fifty percent (50%) of the Termination Fee shall be payable upon delivery of the Early Termination Notice and the remaining fifty percent (50%) shall be payable on or prior to the Early Termination Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the parties agree that the value of the Tenant Improvements is $31.00 per rentable square foot of the Premises. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if, after ten (10) business days after Tenant's request, Landlord has not provided Tenant with its calculation of the Termination Fee, then the first installment of the Termination Fee shall not be due until thirty (30) days after the date that Landlord has provided its calculation of the Termination Fee.

If Tenant properly exercises the Early Termination Option and pays all amounts due under this Lease up to and including the Early Termination Date, including all rental obligations and the total amount of the Termination Fee, then this Lease shall cease and expire on the Early Termination Date with the same force and effect as if the Early Termination Date were the date originally provided in this Lease as the expiration date of the Term. Landlord and Tenant shall enter into a written termination and mutual release to effectuate the termination. For the avoidance of doubt, if any amounts due under this Lease remain unpaid, including any rental obligations or any portion of the Termination Fee, then the Early Termination Date shall not take effect until such date that all due amounts have been paid.

3.5 Definition of "Term". As used herein, the word "Term" shall refer to the Initial Term together with any exercised Renewal Term(s), if applicable.

4. Security Deposit. Tenant agrees to pay Landlord upon execution of this Lease a security deposit in the amount of One Hundred Fifty-Nine Thousand Two Hundred Twenty-Nine and 00/100 DOLLARS ($159,229.00) (the "Deposit"), which represents one (1) month's Annual Base Rent, to be held by Landlord for the duration of the Lease. The Deposit provided herein shall be considered as security for the payment and performance by Tenant of the obligations, covenants, conditions and agreements under this Lease. Provided that Tenant is not in an Event of Default of the Lease beyond an applicable notice and cure period, Landlord shall return the Deposit to Tenant within thirty (30) days after the expiration or early termination of this Lease and the surrender of the Premises to Landlord as provided for herein. In the Event of Default beyond an applicable notice and cure period by Tenant hereunder, Landlord shall have the right, but not be obligated, upon prior written notice to Tenant, to apply all or any portion of the Deposit to cure such Event of Default, in which event Tenant shall be obligated to promptly deposit with Landlord that portion of the Deposit used to cure said Event of Default. In the event Landlord withholds any portion of the Deposit at the conclusion of this Lease, Landlord shall account to Tenant the application of such portion of the Deposit in writing and return to Tenant any remaining portion of the Deposit within thirty (30) days.

5. Use.

5.1 Tenant shall use and occupy the Premises only for general office and professional business purposes, and ancillary uses thereto, including but not limited to a kitchen compatible with normal office use containing vending machines, coffee brewers, microwave appliances and dish washing machines, training and conference room, and computer room(s), subject to Applicable Laws (defined below). Tenant shall not use the Premises or allow the Premises to be used for any other purpose without the prior written consent of the Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Tenant shall not use or permit the Premises or any part thereof to be used in any manner that constitutes waste, nuisance or unreasonable disturbances to other tenants of the Building or for any unlawful purpose and will not store or maintain therein any hazardous, toxic or highly combustible items other than usual and customary office supplies intended for Tenant’s use and in such event only in such amounts as permitted by Applicable Law.

5.2 Tenant shall not put the Premises to any use, the effect of which use is reasonably likely to cause cancellation of any insurance covering the Premises or the Building, or an increase in the premium rates for such insurance. In the event that Tenant performs or commits any act, the effect of which raises the premium rates for such insurance, Tenant shall pay Landlord the amount of the additional premium, as Additional Rent payable by Tenant within thirty (30) days after Tenant's receipt of detailed evidence of such additional premiums and evidence that such additional premium was the result of Tenant's action. In the event that Tenant cures such condition, Landlord will undertake commercially reasonable efforts to request that its insurer reduce the insurance premium and if so reduced, Landlord shall refund to Tenant a prorated portion of the increased insurance premium. Landlord represents and warrants to Tenant that Tenant’s use of the Premises for the uses permitted herein is not in violation of any Applicable Law (including local zoning laws) and will not increase the current premium rates for Landlord’s insurance. The Premises shall not be used for any illegal purpose or in any manner which unreasonably interferes with the quiet enjoyment of any other tenant of the Building. Tenant will not install or operate in the Premises any electrical or other equipment, other than such equipment as is commonly used in modern offices specifically excluding mainframe computers, but including local area networks and a reasonable number of servers for a normal and customary office user in the Herndon market, without first obtaining the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, but which consent may be conditioned upon the payment by Tenant for excess consumption of water, electricity and/or other utilities and any changes, replacements or additions to any base building system, as may be occasioned by the operation of said equipment or machinery. Landlord and Tenant agree to separately meter any supplemental cooling unit two tons or larger.

5.3 Subject to Section 11 of this Lease, Tenant agrees to maintain the Premises in good order, repair and condition during the Term at Tenant's expense, reasonable wear and tear and damage by casualty, condemnation and for which Landlord is obligated hereunder to repair excepted, and Tenant will, at the expiration or other termination of the Term, surrender and deliver the same and all keys, keycards, locks and other fixtures connected therewith (excepting only Tenant's personal property) in good order, repair and condition, except as repaired, rebuilt, restored, altered or added to pursuant to this Lease, and except for ordinary wear and tear and damage by casualty, condemnation and for which Landlord is obligated hereunder to repair. Landlord shall have no obligation to Tenant to make any repairs in or to the Premises except as otherwise set forth in this Lease, including but not limited to Landlord's obligations set forth in Section 11.2 below. Any and all damage or injury to the Premises, the Building, or the Land caused by Tenant, or by any employee, agent, contractor, assignee or subtenant of Tenant shall be promptly reported to Landlord and repaired by Tenant at Tenant's sole cost to the extent the insurance carried by Tenant hereunder covers such damage (or would have been covered had Tenant carried the insurance required to be carried hereunder); otherwise such damage shall be repaired by Landlord.

5.4 Tenant shall not place a load upon the floor of the Premises exceeding the designated floor load capacity of the Building. Business machines, mechanical equipment and materials belonging to Tenant which cause unreasonable vibration, noise, cold, heat or fumes that may be transmitted to the Building or to any other leased space therein to such a degree as to be reasonably objectionable to Landlord or to any other tenant of the Building shall be placed, maintained, isolated, stored and/or vented by Tenant at its expense so as to absorb and prevent such vibration, noise, cold, heat or fumes. Landlord shall reasonably approve the location for Tenant′ s safes.

5.5 Intentionally deleted.

5.6 Building Amenities.

5.6.1 Throughout the Term Tenant's employees may use the fitness facility in the neighboring building located at 2350 Corporate Park Drive on a non-exclusive, first-come, first-served basis (subject to reasonable rules and regulations), at no additional charge to Tenant. Landlord shall specifically condition the use of the fitness facility by any person upon such person's execution of a written waiver and release holding Landlord harmless from any and all liability, damage, expense, cause of action, suit, claim, judgment and cost of defense arising from injury to such employee or guest occurring in the fitness facility or resulting from the use thereof. Neither Landlord nor Landlord's agents, members or partners, shall have any liability to Tenant or Tenant's employees, agents or invitees, for any damage, injury, loss, expense, compensation or claim whatsoever arising out of the use of the fitness facility, except to the extent any of the foregoing results from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or its employees, agents, or contractors. Further, Tenant agrees to indemnify and save harmless Landlord and its agents, members and partners from and against any and all such damages, injuries, losses, expenses, compensation or claims (including reasonable out-of-pocket attorneys' fees) arising from the use of the fitness facility by Tenant or Tenant's employees, agents or invitees, except to the extent such claims result from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or its employees, agents, or contractors.

5.6.2 During the Term, Tenant shall have the non-exclusive right to use the conference center to be constructed on the first floor of the Building, which shall accommodate at least fifty (50) persons and include a kitchen/break area ("Conference Facility") for the common use of tenants in the Building, in accordance with all rules and regulations reasonably adopted by Landlord in connection therewith. Landlord shall aim to complete the Conference Facility by July 1, 2026. If Landlord fails to complete the Conference Facility by August 15, 2026 (other than due to a Tenant Delay(s)), then following the Full Rent Commencement Date, Tenant shall be entitled to an abatement of Rent in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500.00) per day for each day after August 15, 2026 until the Conference Facility is completed. Landlord, in its sole discretion, may restrict access to the Conference Facility during those periods when it is reserved for a private function or necessary to close the Conference Facility for repairs or maintenance. The Conference Facility will be available for reservation, subject to Landlord's procedures, rules and regulations, but not more than one hundred eighty (180) days in advance of the desired date. There shall be no charge for Tenant's use of the Conference Facility, provided that if Tenant reserves the same for its exclusive use, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for all actual cleaning costs incurred by Landlord as a result of Tenant's use of the same. In the event that any other tenant leases or occupies space within the Building, use of the Conference Facility shall be subject to equitable allocation among all tenants, and the Tenant shall have no right to reserve the Conference Facility for its exclusive use in excess of Tenant's Proportionate Share in any quarter without Landlord's prior approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Neither Landlord nor Landlord's agents, members or partners, shall have any liability to Tenant or Tenant's employee, agents or invitees, for any damage, injury, loss, expense, compensation or claim whatsoever arising out of the use of the Conference Facility, except to the extent any of the foregoing results from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or its employees, agents, or contractors. All costs of operating, maintaining, and repairing the Conference Facility (and the furniture and equipment therein, including furnishing and replacement thereof) shall be subject to reimbursement to the extent includable in Operating Expenses. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease, Tenant shall not be required to indemnify Landlord for any claims, damages, or liabilities arising out of or related to the use of the Conference Facility by Tenant's employees to the extent such claims result from the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or its employees, agents, or contractors.

5.6.3 Landlord shall, prior to July 1, 2026, provide for Tenant's non-exclusive use a "grab-and-go" commercial refrigerator selling pre-packaged food, snacks and beverage items in the Building similar to comparable first-class office building in the Herndon, Virginia submarket, unless and until a third-party food and beverage provider becomes operational in the Building.

6 Rent.

6.1 Base Rent. Subject to the rent abatement outlined in Section 6.1.1, Tenant shall, commencing on the Commencement Date, pay to Landlord an Annual Base Rent, in equal monthly installments, in advance on the first day of each calendar month during the Term, and without deduction, setoff or demand, except as otherwise set forth herein, in accordance with the schedule set forth in Section 1.1.6 above. If the Commencement Date should occur on a day other than the first day of a calendar month, Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon the Commencement Date, a sum equaling that percentage of the monthly rent installment which equals the percentage of such calendar month falling within the Term. Upon the execution and delivery of this Lease, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord an amount equal to the first calendar month's Annual Base Rent (One Hundred Fifty-Nine Thousand Two Hundred Twenty-Nine and 00/100 DOLLARS ($159,229.00)), which rent shall be applied to the Annual Base Rent due by Tenant for the first (1st) calendar month of the Term in which Tenant is obligated to pay the full amount of the Annual Base Rent for the Third Floor and Fourth Floor of the Premises.

6.1.1 Rent Abatement. Landlord shall abate Tenant's monthly installments of Annual Base Rent as follows: a) with respect to the Third Floor, for the period commencing on the Commencement Date and ending on the date that is six (6) months after the Delivery Date (the "Full Rent Commencement Date"), and b) with respect to the Fourth Floor, for the period commencing on the Delivery Date and ending on the Full Rent Commencement Date. Tenant shall have the right to convert up to one hundred percent (100%) of the value of the foregoing rent abatement in the aggregate amount of $955,374.00 into the Furnishing Allowance (as defined below).

6.1.2 Rent Escalations. Commencing on the one-year anniversary of the Delivery Date, and each subsequent anniversary thereafter, the Annual Base Rent for the entire Premises shall escalate by two and three quarters percent (2.75%).

6.2 Definitions For the purposes hereof, the following definitions shall apply:

6.2.1 "Property" shall mean the Building, the land upon which same is situated (the "Land"), and the Common Areas.

6.2.2 "Operating Expenses" shall mean all reasonable expenses, costs and disbursements of every kind and nature, without duplication, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied ("GAAP"), actually paid or incurred by Landlord in connection with the management, operation, maintenance, servicing and repair of the Property, including but not limited to (i) reasonable wages, salaries, welfare and pension benefits and other fringe benefits for employees of Landlord at or below the level of building/property manager engaged full-time (or if less than full-time in a manner proportionate to their respective responsibilities to the Building as compared with other, non-Building related responsibilities) in the operation, management, maintenance and repair of the Building; (ii) payroll taxes for the employees listed in (i) above; (iii) telephone service to the extent the same is available in common areas of the Building for emergency use; (iv) painting of common areas of the Building; (v) exterminating service; (vi) detection and security services; (vii) intentionally omitted; (viii) sewer rents and charges; (ix) premiums for fire and casualty, liability, workmen's compensation, sprinkler, and water damage insurance; (x) repairs and maintenance; (xi) building supplies; (xii) uniforms and dry cleaning if the cost of same is not the responsibility of, or recoverable from, employees listed in (i) above working at the Building; (xiii) snow removal; (xiv) the cost of obtaining and providing electricity to the common areas of the Building and water and other public utilities to all areas of the Building unless otherwise recovered from tenants of the Building as additional rent under tenant leases; (xv) trash removal; (xvi) janitorial and cleaning supplies and services; (xvii) window cleaning; (xviii) service contracts for the maintenance of elevators, boilers, HVAC and other mechanical, plumbing and electrical equipment; (xix) fees for all licenses and permits required for the operation of the Land and the Building; (xx) business license fees and taxes, including those based on Landlord’s rental income from the Building, but excluding income taxes; (xxi) intentionally deleted; (xxii) intentionally omitted; (xxiii) sales, use and personal property taxes payable in connection with tangible personal property and services purchased for the management, operation, maintenance, repair, cleaning, safety and administration of the Land and the Building; (xxiv) commercially reasonable legal fees, except as provided in (f), (s), (w), (ah) and (aj) below; (xxv) accounting fees relating to the determination of Operating Expenses and the tenants’ share thereof and the preparation of statements required by tenants’ leases; (xxvi) management fees, whether or not paid to any person having an interest in or under common ownership with Landlord, provided said management fees are not in excess of comparable rates charged by similar property managers of comparable buildings as to age, size and location in the Herndon, Virginia, submarket, not to exceed 3.5% of gross revenues for the Property; (xxvii) purchase and installation of indoor plants in the common areas of the Building; and (xxviii) landscaping maintenance and the purchase and replacement of landscaping services, plants and shrubbery. If Landlord makes an expenditure for a capital improvement to the Land or the Building that is considered capital in nature under GAAP (including, without limitation any capital improvements, repairs, replacements, tools and other expenditures) (1) by installing energy conservation or labor-saving devices to reduce Operating Expenses, provided, that such expenditures shall be limited to those replacements of building elements with other building elements which serve similar purposes, and improvements or building elements added to the Building which in Landlord’s reasonable judgment will increase the efficiency of the Building (i.e., are reasonably anticipated by Landlord to reduce Operating Expenses as they relate to the item which is the subject of the capital expenditure or which are reasonably anticipated by Landlord to reduce the rate of increase in Operating Expenses as they relate to the item which is the subject of the capital expenditure from what it otherwise would have been in the absence of such capital expenditure),. or (2) to comply with any Applicable Law enacted after the Effective Date (such capital expenditures under clauses (1) and (2) above, “Permitted Capital Expenditures”), then the cost thereof shall be amortized on a straight-line basis over a period equal to the useful life of such improvement, determined in accordance with GAAP, and the amortized costs allocated to each calendar year during the Term, shall be treated as an Operating Expense. In no event shall any Permitted Capital Expenditures (or any amortized portion thereof) be included in Operating Expenses during the final two (2) Lease Years.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Operating Expenses shall exclude (a) Taxes as defined in Section 6.2.3, below; (b) leasing commissions, costs, disbursements, and other expenses incurred for leasing, renovating, or improving space for tenants; costs (including permit, license, and inspection fees) incurred in renovating, improving, decorating, painting, or redecorating vacant space or space for tenants; (c) Landlord’s cost of electricity, submetering or other service sold to tenants for which Landlord is reimbursed as a charge over the rent and additional rent payable under the lease with that tenant; (d) costs for capital expenditures (except for Permitted Capital Expenditures to the extent permitted, above); (e) depreciation and amortization on the Building; (f) costs incurred because Landlord or another tenant violated the terms of any lease; (g) all amounts which would otherwise be included in Operating Expenses which are paid to any affiliate or subsidiary of Landlord, to the extent the costs of such services exceed the competitive rates paid in the Herndon, Virginia, area for similar services of comparable quality; (h) interest or amortization on funds borrowed by Landlord, whether secured or unsecured; (i) compensation paid to clerks, attendants, or other persons in commercial concessions operated by Landlord; (j) rentals and other related expenses incurred in leasing air conditioning systems, elevators, or other equipment ordinarily considered to be of a base building system, except to the extent such costs are a Permitted Capital Expenditure permitted to be passed through as set forth above or to the extent such equipment is leased for a temporary purpose, as a result of an emergency or to provide janitorial services; (k) items and services for which the tenants are required to reimburse Landlord or pay third parties or that Landlord provides selectively to one or more tenants of the Building other than Tenant; (l) advertising and promotional expenditures; (m) repairs or other work needed because of fire, windstorm, or other casualty or cause insured against by Landlord; (n) costs incurred to remedy structural or latent defects in the construction of the Building; (o) any costs, fines, or penalties incurred because Landlord violated any Applicable Laws including governmental rule or authority or due to the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or its employees, agents or contractors; (p) costs incurred to remove any Hazardous Material (defined below) from the Building to the extent said Hazardous Material was not introduced by Tenant; (q) depreciation of the Building; (r) omitted or additional Real Estate Taxes assessed during the Term but relating to a period prior to the Delivery Date; (s) expenses which are reimbursed by insurance or warranties; (t) the amount of any refundable deposits; (u) federal, state or local income, revenue or excise taxes imposed on Landlord or any inheritance, estate, succession, transfer, gift, capital stock, franchise, or excess profit taxes; (v) the cost of any work or service performed for any tenant at such tenant's cost and expense; (w) legal expenses incurred in the preparation of the leases, subleases or lease assignments or enforcing the terms of any lease, sublease or lease assignment or in connection with disputes with other tenants or prospective tenants; (x) management fees in excess of three percent (3%) of gross annual rentals received; (y) advertising, promotional and marketing expenses, or the cost of maintaining a leasing or marketing office for the Building; (z) Landlord's limited liability company overhead not related to management of the Building; (aa) original construction costs of the Building; (ab) reserves for repairs, maintenance and replacements; (ac) salaries, wages, or other compensation paid to employees of any property management organization whose salaries are deemed covered by a management fee (i.e., property manager, accounting or clerical personnel); (ad) amounts paid to any members, partners, shareholders, officers or directors of Landlord, for salary or other compensation; (ae) expenses for repairs, replacements or improvements arising from the initial construction of the Building to the extent such expenses are either (i) reimbursed to Landlord by virtue of warranties from contractors or suppliers or (ii) result by reason of deficiencies in design or workmanship except conditions resulting from ordinary wear and tear; (af) interest or penalties arising by reason of Landlord's failure to timely pay any Operating Expenses or Taxes which is not caused by Tenant's failure to pay any amounts due hereunder; (ag) any increase in an insurance premium to the extent that such increase is caused or attributable to the particular use, occupancy or act of another tenant; (ah) costs and expenses incurred in connection with any transfer of an interest in the Building or the Land; (ai) acquisition of art; (aj) mortgage refinancing costs, including attorneys' fees, title insurance premiums, and recording costs; (ak) costs of utilities and services provided to retail tenants in the Building or otherwise subject to separate metering and payment by any tenant; (al) costs incurred for maintenance of any parking area within the Building, or compensation paid to clerks, attendants, sales persons or others in connection with commercial concessions (including the parking garage) operated within the Building; (am) cost of any political, charitable, or civic contribution or donation; (an) ground rent payable pursuant to any ground lease or overlease; and (ao) any bad debt loss or rent loss. If at any time during the Base Year, or during any subsequent calendar year during the Term ("Subsequent Year"), less than ninety-five percent (95%) of the total rentable square feet of space in the Building is occupied by tenants, the amount of Operating Expenses for the Base Year, or for any such Subsequent Year, as the case may be, that are affected based on variations in occupancy levels shall be deemed to be the amount of Operating Expenses as reasonably estimated by Landlord that would have been incurred if the percentage of occupancy of the Building during the Base Year or any such Subsequent Year was ninety-five percent (95%).

6.2.3 "Taxes" shall mean all real property taxes, sewer rents, ad valorem charges, water rates, front foot benefit charges, business, professional and occupational license tax and all other governmental impositions in the nature of any of the foregoing, provided that the same shall pertain only to the Property. Excluded from Taxes are (i) federal, state or local income taxes, (ii) franchise, gift, transfer, gross receipts, excise, capital stock, estate, succession or inheritance taxes, (iii) penalties or interest charged for late payment of Taxes (unless arising from Tenant's failure to timely pay Tenant's Proportionate Share of Taxes due as Additional Rent), (iv) increases in Taxes due to improvements to the Property performed by or on behalf of another tenant or occupant of the Building and (v) increases in Taxes arising from the sale of the Property by Woodland Partners I, LLC. If at any time during the Term the method of taxation prevailing at the commencement of the Term shall be altered so as to cause the whole or any part of the items listed in the first sentence of this subparagraph to be levied, assessed or imposed, wholly or partly as a capital levy, or otherwise, on the rents received from the Building, wholly or partly in lieu of imposition of taxes in the nature of real estate taxes issued against the Property, then the charge to Landlord resulting from such altered method of taxation shall be deemed to be within the definition of "Taxes."

6.2.4 "Common Areas" shall mean any and all areas and facilities which may be from time to time furnished to the Building by Landlord for the non-exclusive general common use of tenants and other occupants of the Building, their officers, contractors, employees, assignees, subtenants and invitees, including (without limitation to the extent applicable) the hallways, stairs, parking facilities, washrooms, and elevators. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that any portion of the Property (excluding the Building) also serves as common areas for other tenants of buildings in the complex of buildings owned by Landlord and the costs of maintenance, repair and operation thereof are charged as Operating Expenses under this Lease, such costs shall be equitably apportioned among the Building and such other buildings in the complex owned by Landlord and only such prorated portion of expenses shall be included in Operating Expenses.

6.2.5 "Lease Year" shall mean the first twelve (12) full calendar month period following the Delivery Date and each succeeding twelve (12) month period thereafter up to the end of the Term; provided, however, that if the Delivery Date shall occur on a day other than the first day of a calendar month, then the first Lease Year shall begin on the Delivery Date and end as of the last day of the twelfth (12^{th}) full calendar month after the Delivery Date.

6.3 Rent Adjustments for Taxes. Commencing on January 1, 2028 Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord as Additional Rent Tenant's Proportionate Share of the increase in Taxes for any calendar year or any part thereof occurring during the Term above the Taxes incurred in the Base Year. Taxes incurred in the Base Year and any Subsequent Year shall be grossed-up based on the Building being ninety-five percent (95%) occupied and fully assessed for tax purposes. Prior to the commencement of each calendar year during the Term, Landlord shall furnish to Tenant a written statement setting forth Landlord's good faith estimate of the amount by which Taxes for such calendar year will exceed the Taxes incurred in the Base Year. Tenant shall pay Tenant's Proportionate Share of such increase in equal monthly installments, in advance, as Additional Rent together with its monthly Base Rent. Within one hundred twenty (120) days after the expiration of each calendar year, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a statement reflecting the actual Taxes for such calendar year and within thirty (30) days after receipt of such statement (along with a copy of the tax bill reflecting the Taxes for such calendar year), Tenant shall, pay, as Additional Rent, the deficiency, if any, in the increase in Taxes payable by Tenant for such calendar year. If the total amount paid by Tenant is greater than the amount required to be paid for such calendar year, then the amount of such excess payment will be applied by Landlord to the next succeeding monthly installment of Base Rent due hereunder. If there are any such excess payments made during the final calendar year of the Term, then the amount of such excess will be refunded to Tenant simultaneously with Landlord's delivery to Tenant of such statement.

Landlord, upon written request from Tenant, shall contest any assessment of Taxes. All reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Landlord (including attorneys', appraisers' and consultants' fees, and other costs) in contesting any increase in Taxes or any increase in the assessment of the Property shall be borne by Tenant if Tenant requested such contest, provided, however, that in the event such contesting of Taxes results in a reduction in Taxes, such expense (to the extent of any reduction resulting thereby) shall be an Operating Expense and not borne by Tenant.

6.4 Rent Adjustments for Operating Expenses. Commencing on January 1, 2028, Tenant shall pay Tenant's Proportionate Share of Landlord's estimated increases in Operating Expenses over the Operating Expenses incurred in the Base Year in equal monthly installments, in advance, as Additional Rent together with monthly Base Rent. Prior to the commencement of each calendar year during the Term, Landlord shall furnish to Tenant a written statement setting forth Landlord's good faith estimate of the amount of increases in Operating Expenses for such calendar year. Within one hundred twenty (120) days after the expiration of each calendar year, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a detailed statement showing the actual increases in Operating Expenses for such calendar year and within thirty (30) days after receipt of such detailed statement, Tenant shall pay as Additional Rent, the deficiency if any, in charges payable by Tenant for such calendar year. If the total amount paid by Tenant as Tenant's Proportionate Share of such charges is greater than the amount required to be paid for such calendar year, then, the amount of such excess payment shall be applied by Landlord to the next succeeding monthly installment of Base Rent due hereunder. If there are any such excess payments made during the final calendar year of the Term, then the amount of such excess will be refunded to Tenant by Landlord simultaneously with Landlord's delivery to Tenant of such detailed statement. Tenant's right to receive the excess payments shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease.

6.4.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Lease, Landlord shall not include in Operating Expenses during any calendar year in the Term that portion of Controllable Expenses (hereinafter defined) during such calendar year which exceeds the Controllable Expense Cap (hereinafter defined) for such calendar year. As used herein, the term "Controllable Expense Cap" shall be (a) for the calendar year 2027, the aggregate amount of Controllable Expenses incurred during such calendar year, and (b) for each calendar year thereafter, no more than one hundred five percent (105%) of the Controllable Expenses for the prior calendar year on a non-cumulative and non-compounding basis (as capped by the Controllable Expense Cap that was effective in the immediately-preceding calendar year). As used herein, the term "Controllable Expenses" means each and every category of Operating Expenses except the cost of taxes, utilities, insurance premiums and snow and ice removal.

6.5 Additional Rent Payments. Tenant's obligation to pay any Additional Rent accruing during the Term pursuant to Sections 6.3 and 6.4 hereof shall apply pro rata to the proportionate part of a calendar year as to the increases in Taxes and Operating Expenses, in which this Lease begins or ends, for the portion of each such year during which this Lease is in effect. Tenant shall pay all Additional Rent due hereunder (the estimated payments of Operating Expenses and Taxes under Sections 6.3 and 6.4 hereof) within thirty (30) days after Tenant's receipt of a detailed statement or invoice therefor. Such obligation to make payments of such Additional Rent shall survive the expiration or sooner termination of the Term. Notwithstanding the foregoing and anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, if Landlord shall fail to provide a statement for any Operating Expenses or Taxes within eighteen (18) months after such Operating Expenses or Taxes are incurred by Landlord, then Landlord shall be deemed to have waived its right to collect any amounts due hereunder in respect thereof.

6.6 Payments. All payments or installments of any rent, including Annual Base Rent and Additional Rent, hereunder and all sums whatsoever due from Tenant under this Lease (including but not limited to court costs and attorneys' fees) shall be deemed rent and shall be paid to Landlord at the address designated in writing by Landlord. If any amount of Annual Base Rent or Additional Rent shall remain unpaid for five (5) business days after such payment becomes due hereunder, and, where applicable, remains unpaid five (5) business days after Tenant's receipt of written notice that such payment is due, Tenant shall pay Landlord a late charge equal to three percent (3%) of such overdue amount to compensate Landlord for its administrative costs in connection with such overdue payment. In no event shall Landlord be required to give more than two (2) written notices of any late payment of rent in any twelve (12) month period. Additionally, if any of Tenant's checks for payment of rent or additional rent are returned to Landlord for insufficient funds, Tenant shall pay to Landlord as Additional Rent an amount equal to Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for each such check returned for insufficient funds, and if two (2) or more of Tenant's checks in payment of Annual Base Rent or Additional Rent due hereunder are returned for insufficient funds in any Lease Year, Landlord reserves the right upon ten (10) days advance written notice to Tenant to thereafter require Tenant to pay all Annual Base Rent and Additional Rent and other sums whatsoever due under this Lease in cash, by money order or by certified check or cashier's check or electronic funds transfer.

6.7 Audit Rights. Tenant shall have the right to audit Landlord's books and records relating to Operating Expenses and/or Taxes for any calendar year during the Term (including the Base Year) provided that such right may not be exercised more than once per Lease Year and, provided further, that Tenant's right to audit shall expire unless exercised within a period of one hundred eighty (180) days following Tenant's receipt of the end-of-year statements required to be delivered by Landlord pursuant to Sections 6.3 and 6.4 hereof. If Tenant exercises its option to conduct an audit, (i)Tenant shall hire a Qualified Accountant to conduct such audit; (ii) Tenant's Qualified Accountant shall conduct the audit at Landlord's place of business or the actual location of Landlord's books and records if different from Landlord's place of business, provided such location is in the Northern Virginia area, during Landlord's normal business hours (or electronically, if such books are records are available online), and (iii) Tenant's Qualified Accountant shall complete the audit within sixty (60) days after Landlord has afforded to such Qualified Accountant access to Landlord's books and records. Tenant agrees to endeavor in good faith to cause the audit to be conducted in a manner that will cause minimum disruption to the operation of Landlord's offices. Within thirty (30) days after the audit report, any overpayments by Tenant under this Section 6 shall be credited or refunded as provided herein, and any underpayments shall be paid to Landlord. If the discrepancy is greater than five percent (5%), then in addition to reimbursing or crediting any overcharge, Landlord shall pay for the reasonable cost of such audit. The term "Qualified Accountant" shall mean a certified public accountant or a consultant from a nationally or regionally recognized accounting or consulting firm or lease auditing division of a national commercial real estate firm, having experience conducting lease pass-through expense audits for commercial office buildings in the Washington, DC metropolitan area, which accountant or consultant is retained on a non-contingency fee basis.

Landlord shall be deemed to have accepted the results of Tenant's audit unless Landlord delivers to Tenant, within sixty (60) days following Landlord's receipt of Tenant's audit results, written notice to Tenant to the effect that Landlord disputes such audit results. In the event that Landlord disputes Tenant's audit, Landlord and Tenant shall confer for the purpose of resolving their disputes for a period of thirty (30) days following Tenant's receipt of Landlord's dispute notice, or for such longer period as the parties shall agree. After the expiration of such thirty (30) day period or such longer period as the parties shall agree, if Landlord and Tenant have not resolved their dispute, Landlord and Tenant shall designate an independent and unrelated certified public accounting firm (the "Audit Firm") who shall review Tenant's audit and, if necessary, shall re-audit Landlord's books and records and issue a final report within ninety (90) days of its designation. Landlord and Tenant shall fully cooperate with the review by the Audit Firm. Landlord shall pay the cost of the Audit Firm. The findings of the Audit Firm shall be conclusive and binding on the parties hereto as they relate to the items in dispute as well as responsibility for the payment of the cost of the Audit Firm's audit.

7. Requirements of Applicable Law. Landlord represents and warrants that on the Delivery

Date, the Building, the Premises and all Common Areas shall comply with all applicable laws, ordinances, rules and regulations of governmental authorities having jurisdiction over the Property, including the Americans with Disabilities Act, Title 24, ASHRAE, seismic and construction codes ("Applicable Laws"). Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall thereafter comply promptly with all Applicable Laws now in force or which may hereafter be in force and which relate to Tenant's particular use of the Premises (except with respect to Tenant's use of the Premises for general office use), which impose any duty upon Landlord or Tenant with respect to the use, occupancy or alteration of the Premises or any part thereof and for the prevention of fires; provided, however, that Landlord and not Tenant shall correct and pay for correcting all structural defects in the Building and any defect in any of the Common Areas necessary to comply with Applicable Laws, and make all repairs, changes or alterations necessary to the Premises, the Building and the Common Areas because the same is not in compliance with any of the Applicable Laws. Landlord, at Landlord's sole cost and expense, throughout the Term of the Lease shall continue compliance with all Applicable Laws of governmental authorities for the Common Areas and the Building.

8. Certificate of Occupancy. Tenant shall not use or occupy the Premises in violation of any certificate of occupancy, non-residential use permit, other permit, or any other governmental consent issued for the Building (all of which documentation, other than any use permits required for Tenant's particular use of the Premises, shall be obtained by Landlord, at Landlord's sole cost prior to Tenant's occupancy of the space for normal business). Subject to the terms of the immediately preceding sentence, if any governmental authority, after the commencement of the Term, shall contend or declare that the Premises is being used for a purpose which is in violation of such certificate of occupancy, non-residential use permit, other permit, or consent, and is outside of the use of the Premises authorized in Section 5, then Tenant shall, upon five (5) days' notice from Landlord, immediately discontinue such use of the Premises. If Tenant fails to discontinue such use within five (5) days after notice from Landlord, subject to Section 9 below, and thereafter the governmental authority asserting such violation threatens, commences or continues criminal or civil proceedings against Landlord for Tenant's failure to discontinue such use, in addition to any and all rights, privileges and remedies given to Landlord under this Lease for default therein, Landlord shall have the right to terminate this Lease forthwith, unless Tenant is contesting such proceedings pursuant to the terms of Section 9, below. If Tenant's use of the Premises is outside of the use authorized in Section 5, Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless of and from any and all liability for any such violation or violations caused by Tenant under this Section 8. If Tenant's use of the Premises is within the authorized use in Section 5 and any governmental authority, after the commencement of the Term, shall contend or declare that the Premises is being used for a purpose which is in violation of such certificate of occupancy, non-residential use permit, other permit, or consent, then Tenant shall, upon five (5) days' notice to Landlord, have the right to immediately terminate this Lease.

9. Contest-Statute, Ordinance, Etc. Tenant may, after notice to Landlord, by appropriate proceedings conducted promptly at Tenant's own expense in Tenant's name and whenever necessary in Landlord's name, contest in good faith the validity or enforcement of any such statute, ordinance, law, order, regulation or requirement and may similarly contest any assertion of violation of any certificate of occupancy, non-residential use permit, other permit, or any consent issued for the Building. Tenant may, pending such contest, defer compliance therewith if, in the reasonable opinion of counsel for Landlord, such deferral shall not subject either Landlord or the Premises or the Property (or any part thereof) to any penalty, fine or forfeiture, and if Tenant shall post a bond with corporate surety approved by Landlord sufficient, in Landlord's reasonable opinion, fully to indemnify Landlord from loss and reimburse Landlord for its reasonable costs including its attorneys' fees in connection with this Section 9.

10. Tenant Alterations.. Tenant may make such improvements, alterations, installations, additions, and decorations to the Premises as it may deem necessary at its sole cost and expense, subject to the provisions of this Section 10. Tenant shall not make any alterations, decorations, installations, additions or improvements to the Premises or the Building, including but not limited to, the installation of any fixtures, amenities, or other apparatus which Tenant cannot reasonably remove without damaging the Premises (collectively, "Tenant Alterations"), without Landlord's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, and then only by contractors or mechanics approved by Landlord, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord's consent shall not be required for any Tenant Alterations that (i) cost less than Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000.00) in any single instance or in the aggregate in any calendar year, (ii) do not adversely affect the base Building or Building systems, and (iii) Tenant provides Landlord prior notice thereof (each, a "Cosmetic Alteration"). For all Tenant Alterations (except Cosmetic Alterations), Tenant shall provide to Landlord prior to commencement of such Tenant Alterations copies of all plans and specifications in CAD or other acceptable format relating to such Tenant Alterations, and as-built plans and assignments of all warranties within thirty (30) days of completion of such Tenant Alterations. All Tenant Alterations shall be done at Tenant's sole expense and so as not to unreasonably interfere with the business operations of other tenants of the Building. Landlord's review of Tenant's plans and specifications for the aforesaid Tenant Alterations shall create no responsibility or liability on the part of Landlord for their completeness, design sufficiency, or compliance with all laws, rules and regulations of governmental agencies or authorities. Landlord shall not unreasonably withhold, condition or delay its consent to plans and specifications for Tenant Alterations. All Tenant Alterations (including wiring and cabling, and the Tenant Improvements), except items of furniture, moveable trade fixtures, equipment, appliances and other items which were installed at Tenant's expense and which can be removed by the Tenant without significant damage to the Premises, shall be the property of Landlord and shall remain upon and be surrendered with the Premises at the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease without molestation or injury. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall remove, prior to the expiration or earlier termination of the Term of this Lease, any "Specialty Alteration" (which means any Tenant Alterations other than Cosmetic Alterations and Tenant Alterations which are normal and customary for office tenants in the Herndon, Virginia, area) which Landlord informed Tenant in writing at the time of Landlord's written consent to such Specialty Alteration must be removed prior to the expiration or earlier termination of the Term of the Lease. All such Tenant Alterations, structural or otherwise, must be performed in a good and workmanlike manner, must comply with all applicable building codes, laws and regulations (including without limitation the Americans With Disabilities Act) for the Premises, and shall otherwise be constructed in strict accordance with the terms and conditions of this Section 10. Prior to undertaking any Tenant Alterations in the Premises, Tenant shall furnish to Landlord duplicate original policies or certificates thereof of workers' compensation insurance (covering all persons to be employed by Tenant, and Tenant's contractors and subcontractors in connection with such Tenant Alteration), builder's all-risk insurance, and commercial general liability insurance (including property damage coverage) in such form, with such companies, for such periods and in such amounts as Landlord may reasonably require, naming Landlord and any mortgagee identified by Landlord to Tenant as additional insureds. Tenant shall keep the Premises free from any liens arising out of any work performed on, or materials furnished to, the Premises, or arising from any other obligation incurred by Tenant. If any mechanic's or materialmen's lien is filed against the Premises, the Building and/or the Land for work claimed to have been done for or materials claimed to have been furnished to Tenant, such lien shall be discharged by Tenant within thirty (30) days after Tenant receives actual notice of such lien, at Tenant's expense, by the payment thereof or by filing any bond required by law. If Tenant shall fail to timely discharge any such mechanic's or materialman's lien, Landlord may, at its option, discharge the same and treat the reasonable cost thereof as Additional Rent payable with the installment of rent next becoming due. Tenant shall indemnify and hold harmless Landlord, the Premises and the Building from and against any and all expenses, liens, claims, actions or damages to person or property in connection with any such lien or the performance of any Tenant Alteration. Notwithstanding the above, Tenant may, at its option (but without being obliged to do so) remove any free-standing partitions, trade fixtures, custom cabinetry, lockers, wiring, cabling, systems, and equipment in the computer labs installed by Tenant upon the expiration of this Lease. If Tenant cuts telephone and data cabling at the end of the Term to endeavor to make it useless to subsequent occupancy, all Tenant installed cabling will be removed from Premises.

11. Repairs and Maintenance.

11.1 Tenant's Care of the Premises. During the Term Tenant shall:

(i) keep the Premises and the fixtures, appurtenances and improvements therein in good order and condition, reasonable wear and tear, damage due to casualty, condemnation and for which is Landlord's obligation to repair hereunder and any damage caused by any act or omission of Landlord or any of Landlord's agents, contractors or employees excepted;

(ii) make repairs or replacements to the Premises required because of Tenant's misuse or negligence, unless such repairs or replacements would otherwise be the obligation of Landlord hereunder or the cost of such repair or replacement is covered by Landlord's insurance (or would have been covered had Landlord carried the insurance required to be carried by Landlord hereunder); and

(iii) subject to the terms of Section 13.3, below, pay for all damage to the Building, its fixtures and appurtenances, as well as all damages sustained by Tenant or occupants of the Building due to any waste, misuse or neglect of the Premises, its fixtures and appurtenances or the Common Area caused by Tenant.

11.2 Landlord's Repairs. Landlord shall promptly make all repairs and replacements to the Common Areas and Building (including Building fixtures and equipment) as shall be reasonably deemed necessary to maintain the Building in good working order, in compliance with Applicable Laws, and otherwise in a condition suitable for a first-class office building in the Herndon, Virginia submarket. This obligation shall include the maintenance, repair and replacement of the roof, foundation, exterior walls, interior structural walls, exterior windows, all structural components, all systems such as mechanical, electrical, multi-tenant HVAC, fire/life-safety, and plumbing, restrooms located in the Common Areas and on any full floors occupied by Tenant, and walkways and other outdoor Common Areas. The costs associated with such repairs shall be deemed a part of Operating Expenses, except as otherwise expressly excluded pursuant to Section 6.2. In addition, Landlord shall be responsible for the repair and replacement of any VAV boxed during the Term and any renewal thereof. Notwithstanding for foregoing, any repairs to the Premises made necessary by the negligent or willful act or omission of, or default under this Lease by, Landlord or its agents, employees or contractors shall be made at Landlord's expense (and not part of Operating Expenses), subject to the waivers of subrogation set forth in Section 13.3 below. Except as otherwise set forth herein, there shall be no allowance to Tenant for a diminution of rental value, no abatement of rent, and no liability on the part of Landlord by reason of inconvenience, annoyance or injury to business arising from Landlord, Tenant or others making any repairs or performing maintenance as provided for herein. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, if, as a result of such repairs, the Premises (or any portion thereof) is rendered untenantable for five (5) consecutive days, then commencing with the sixth (6th) day from Landlord's receipt of notice of such untenantability, Annual Base Rent and Additional Rent for the Premises (or affected portion thereof) shall be abated until the Premises (or affected portion thereof) is again tenantable.

12. Surrender of the Premises.. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, without the need for prior notice from Landlord and subject to the terms of Section 10, above, Tenant shall surrender the Premises to Landlord in substantially the same condition that the Premises were in on the Commencement Date with respect to the Fourth Floor, and on the Delivery Date with respect to the Third Floor, except for:

(i) ordinary wear and tear;

(ii) damage by the elements, fire, and other casualty unless Tenant would be required to repair same or otherwise arising from the negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant;

(iii) damage arising from any cause not required to be repaired or replaced by Tenant; and

(iv) Tenant Alterations as permitted by this Lease, except for Specialty Alterations which Landlord informed Tenant in writing at the time of Landlord's written consent must be removed prior to the expiration or earlier termination of the Term.

On surrender, Tenant shall remove from the Premises its personal property and movable trade fixtures and repair any damage to the Premises caused by this removal. Any items not removed by Tenant as required above shall be considered abandoned. Landlord may dispose of abandoned items as Landlord chooses and bill Tenant for the cost of their disposal.

13. Insurance.

13.1 Tenant's Insurance. Tenant shall keep in force at its own expense, so long as this Lease remains in effect, (a) commercial general liability insurance, including insurance against assumed or contractual liability under this Lease, with respect to the Premises, to afford protection with limits, per person and for each occurrence, of not less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000), combined single limit and Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000.00) in the aggregate, with respect to bodily injury and death and property damage, (b) property damage insurance, written at replacement value and with replacement value endorsement, if commercially available, against perils included within the classification of fire extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief, and special extended perils ("all risks" or "special form"), as such term is commonly understood in the property insurance industry, covering all of Tenant's personal property in the Premises and all improvements installed in the Premises by or on behalf of Tenant including all Tenant Improvements and Tenant Alterations, or otherwise, (c) if, and to the extent, required by law, worker's compensation or similar insurance offering statutory coverage and containing statutory limits, and (d) if commercially available, business interruption insurance in an amount sufficient to reimburse Tenant for loss of earnings attributable to prevention of access to the Building or the Premises for a period of at least twelve (12) months. Such policies shall be maintained in companies and in form reasonably acceptable to Landlord and shall be written as primary policy coverage and not contributing with, or in excess of, any coverage which Landlord shall carry. Tenant shall deposit a certificate of insurance thereof with Landlord prior to the Commencement Date, which policies shall name Landlord, its property manager and mortgagee, as additional insureds (excluding any policy insuring against workers' compensation) Tenant's insurance carrier shall reissue a certificate annually. All such policies of insurance shall be effective as of the date Tenant occupies the Premises and shall be maintained in force at all times during the Term of this Lease and all other times during which Tenant shall occupy the Premises. Any insurance required of Tenant hereunder may be furnished by Tenant under a blanket policy carried by it, provided that such blanket policy shall contain an endorsement that names Landlord as an additional insured, specifically references the Premises, and guarantees a minimum limit available for the Premises equal to or greater than the insurance amounts required under this Article.

In addition to the foregoing insurance coverage, Tenant shall require any contractor retained by it to perform work on the Premises to carry and maintain, at no expense to Landlord, during such times as contractor is working in the Premises, (i) commercial general liability insurance policy, including, but not limited to, contractor's liability coverage, contractual liability coverage, completed operations coverage, broad form property damage endorsement and contractor's protective liability coverage, to afford protection with limits per person and for each occurrence, of not less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00), combined single limit and Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000.00) in the aggregate, with respect to bodily injury and death and property damage, and (ii) workmen's compensation insurance or similar insurance in form and amounts as required by law.

13.2 Landlord's Insurance. Landlord shall keep in force at its own expense during the Term (a) commercial general liability insurance, including public liability and property damage, with a minimum combined single limit of liability of Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000.00) for bodily injury and death and property damage occurring in or about the Building and Premises, and (b) property damage insurance, written at replacement cost value and with replacement cost endorsement, against all perils included within the classification of fire, extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief, and special extended perils ("all risks"), as such term is commonly understood in the property insurance industry, covering the Building and all of Landlord's improvements in and about same including, without limitation, plate and other interior glass in the Premises. Landlord shall name Tenant as additional insured on Landlord's commercial general liability insurance.

13.3 Waiver of Subrogation. Each party hereto waives claims arising in any manner in its favor and against the other party and agrees that neither party hereto shall be liable to the other party or to any insurance company (by way of subrogation or otherwise) insuring the other party for any loss or damage to the Building, the Premises or other tangible property, or any resulting loss of income, or losses under worker's compensation laws and benefits, or against liability on or about the Building, even though such loss or damage might have been occasioned by the negligence of Landlord or the negligence of Tenant, or their respective agents or employees if any such loss or damage is covered by insurance benefiting the party suffering such loss or damage as was required to be covered by insurance carried pursuant to this Lease (or which would have been covered if such party had carried the insurance required hereunder). Landlord shall cause each insurance policy carried by it insuring the Building or income resulting therefrom against loss by fire or any of the perils covered by the all-risk property insurance carried by it hereunder to be written in such a manner as to provide that the insurer waives all right of recovery by way of subrogation against Tenant in connection with any loss or damage covered by such policies. Tenant shall cause each insurance policy carried by it insuring the Premises (including the contents thereof) against loss by fire or any of the perils covered by the all-risk property insurance required hereunder to be written in such a manner as to provide that the insurer waives all right of recovery by way of subrogation against Landlord in connection with any loss or damage covered by such policies.

14. Rules and Regulations. Tenant shall be bound by the rules and regulations set forth on the schedule attached hereto as Exhibit "B" and made a part hereof. Landlord shall have the right, from time to time, to issue additional or amended rules and regulations regarding the use of the Building, so long as the rules shall be reasonable and provided such rules take effect five (5) business days following written notice thereof to Tenant. When so issued and effective the same shall be considered a part of this Lease and Tenant covenants that the additional or amended rules and regulations shall likewise be faithfully observed by Tenant and Tenant shall use reasonable efforts to ensure that the employees of Tenant and all persons invited by Tenant into the Building comply with such rules and regulations. Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant for the violation of any of the rules and regulations, or the breach of any covenant or condition in any lease, by any other tenant in the Building. Landlord shall not discriminate against Tenant in its enforcement of such rules and regulations.

15. Tenant's Failure to Repair. In the event that Tenant fails after reasonable prior written notice from Landlord, to keep the Premises in a good state of condition and repair pursuant to Section 11 above, or to do any act or make any payment required under this Lease or otherwise fails to comply herewith, Landlord may, at its option (but without being obliged to do so) immediately, or at any time thereafter and without notice, perform the same for the account of Tenant, including the right to enter upon the Premises at all reasonable hours, subject to Tenant's security requirements, to make such repairs, or do any act or make any payment or compliance which Tenant has failed to do, and upon demand, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for any such actual reasonable out-of-pocket expense incurred by Landlord including but not limited to any costs, damages and counsel fees. Any moneys expended by Landlord, as aforesaid, shall be deemed Additional Rent, collectible as such by Landlord. All rights given to Landlord in this Section shall be in addition to any other right or remedy of Landlord herein contained.

16. Property -- Loss, Damage. Landlord, its agents and employees shall not be liable to Tenant for (i) any damage or loss of property of Tenant placed in the custody of persons employed to provide services for tenants of the Building or stored in or about the Premises and/or the Building, unless such damage or loss is the result of the intentional acts, willful omissions or negligence of Landlord or Landlord's agents, contractors or employees, (ii) any injury or damage to persons, property or the business of Tenant, unless such injury or damage is the result of the negligence of Landlord or Landlord's agents, contractors or employees, and (iii) interference with the light, air, or other incorporeal hereditaments of the Premises.

17. Destruction -- Fire or Other Casualty. In case of damage to the Premises or the Building by fire or other casualty, Tenant shall give immediate notice thereof to Landlord, who shall thereupon restore the Premises and all access thereto to the condition which existed prior to such damage (excluding repairs to Tenant's personal property therein) , with reasonable speed and at Landlord's expense, due allowance being made for reasonable delay which may arise by reason of adjustment of loss under insurance policies on the part of Landlord and for reasonable delay on account of "labor troubles" or any other cause beyond Landlord's reasonable control, and to the extent that the Premises or any portion thereof are rendered untenantable the rent shall proportionately abate from the date of such casualty until repaired. In the event the damage shall be so extensive to the whole Building that in Landlord's reasonable opinion, the time necessary to restore the Building and Premises for its present uses will exceed ninety (90) days and Landlord shall decide not to repair or rebuild the Building, this Lease, at the option of either Landlord (provided Landlord so terminates the leases of all or substantially all other similarly situated tenants in the Building) or Tenant, shall be terminated (without penalty or fee to Tenant) upon written notice to Landlord or Tenant and the rent shall, in such event, be paid to or adjusted as of the date of such damage, and the Term of this Lease shall expire by lapse of time and conditional limitation upon the third (3rd) day after such notice is delivered, and Tenant shall thereupon vacate the Premises and surrender the same to Landlord, but no such termination shall release either party from any liability to the other arising from any breach of the obligations imposed on the parties hereunder which accrued prior to such termination.

In addition, in the event that (a) Landlord fails to notify Tenant of the estimated time to complete the restoration within sixty (60) days after the casualty, (b) Landlord estimates that its repairs will take more than one hundred twenty (120) days for any areas of the Premises or Landlord fails to complete the required repairs within Landlord's estimate time period, as the case may be, (c) Tenant is actually deprived of the use of all or any substantial portion of the Premises for a period in excess of one hundred twenty (120) consecutive days, or (d) the damage occurs during the last year of the Term, then Tenant shall have the right, by written notice to Landlord to terminate this Lease as of the date of the casualty (without penalty or fee to Tenant), provided that Tenant gives its notice within seventy-five (75) days after the date of the casualty in the case of subparagraphs (a) and (d) above, within thirty (30) days after receipt of Landlord's notice of the estimated time to complete the restoration or repair in the case of subparagraph (b) above, or within thirty (30) days after the expiration of the time periods set forth in subparagraph (c) above.

18. Eminent Domain. If the whole or more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the floor area of the Premises or the parking spaces available to Tenant under this Lease shall be taken or condemned for any public or quasi-public use or purpose, Tenant may elect, by giving written notice to Landlord not more than sixty (60) days after the date on which title shall vest in such condemnation proceeding, to terminate this Lease (without penalty or fee to Tenant), in which event, the Term of this Lease shall cease and terminate as of the date which is the earlier to occur of (i) the date on which title vests in the condemning authority, or (ii) the date on which Tenant is unable to conduct its business operations from the Premises, and upon such termination, the obligations of Landlord and Tenant hereunder shall cease and be of no further force and effect, except for those obligations which survive the termination hereof. If more than fifty percent (50%) of the floor area of the Building shall be taken or condemned for any public or quasi-public use or purpose, then Landlord may elect, in its sole discretion, by giving written notice to Tenant not more than sixty (60) days after the date on which title shall vest in such condemnation proceeding, to terminate this Lease, provided Landlord so terminates the leases of all or substantially all other similarly situated tenants in the Building, in which event, the Term of this Lease shall cease and terminate as of the date of title vesting. In case of any taking or condemnation, whether or not the Term of this Lease shall cease and terminate, the entire award shall be the property of Landlord, and Tenant hereby assigns to Landlord all its right, title and interest in and to any such award, except that Tenant shall be entitled to claim, prove and receive in the proceedings such awards as may be allowed for moving expenses, loss of profit and fixtures and other equipment installed by it which shall not, under the terms of this Lease, be or become the property of Landlord at the termination hereof, but only if such awards shall be made by the condemnation, court or other authority in addition to, and be stated separately from, the award made by it for the Property and shall not diminish the amount of the award otherwise attributable to Landlord. If the Lease is not terminated pursuant to the terms of this Section 19, Landlord shall restore the Premises to a self-contained architectural unit in the condition which existed on the Commencement Date with respect to the Fourth Floor, and on the Delivery Date with respect to the Third Floor, and Tenant shall not be obligated to pay any Annual Base Rent or Additional Rent for any portion of the Premises which is taken pursuant to this Section 19 or any portion of the Premises which Tenant is not able to conduct business in Rent shall be equitably reduced in proportion to the rentable square footage of the Premises that has been taken for the balance of the Term or, if a temporary taking, equitably abated for such time as the Premises is not capable of being used by Tenant for the uses permitted hereunder, as applicable, and.

19. Assignment or Sublease. Except with respect to any Permitted Assignments and Subleases (hereinafter defined), so long as no Event of Default is continuing, Landlord shall not unreasonably withhold, delay or condition its consent to an assignment of this Lease or sublease of the Premises or any portion thereof for any of the then remaining portion of the unexpired Term provided: (i) in the event of an assignment, such assignee shall have sufficient financial capacity as determined in Landlord's commercially reasonable discretion to satisfy the rental obligations of "Tenant" under the Lease; (ii) in the event of an assignment, such assignee shall assume in writing all of Tenant's obligations under this Lease; (iii) in the event of a sublease, such sublease shall in all respects be subject to and in conformance with the terms of this Lease; and (iv) Tenant continues to remain liable on this Lease for the performance of all terms, including but not limited to, payment of all rent due hereunder, unless otherwise agreed to the contrary by the parties hereto. Landlord shall respond to Tenant's request for approval to an assignment or subletting within five (5) business days after receipt thereof. If any part of the Premises is sublet or occupied by anybody other than Tenant, Landlord may, after an Event of Default by Tenant, collect rent from the subtenant or occupant and apply the net amount collected to the rent herein reserved until such default has been cured, but no such collection shall constitute an acceptance of the subtenant or occupant as tenant, or a release of Tenant from the further observance and performance by Tenant of the covenants herein contained. For purposes of the foregoing, a transfer by operation of law or transfer of a controlling interest in Tenant as same exists as of the date hereof, shall be deemed to be an assignment of this Lease, subject to the terms of this Section 19. No assignment or sublease, regardless of whether Landlord's consent has been granted or withheld, shall be deemed to release Tenant from any of its obligations, unless otherwise agreed to by Landlord. Landlord's acceptance of any name submitted by Tenant, an agent of Tenant, or anyone acting by, through or under Tenant for the purpose of being listed on the Building directory will not be deemed, nor will it substitute for, Landlord's consent, as required by this Lease, to any sublease, assignment, or other occupancy of the Premises by anyone other than Tenant or Tenant's employees. Except with respect to any Permitted Assignments and Subleases, fifty percent (50%) of any net profit (after deducting therefrom tenant improvement costs, allowances, free rent periods, advertising and legal costs, other reasonable economic concessions and leasing commissions) in excess of the Annual Base Rent or Additional Rent payable by Tenant hereunder which is payable to Tenant as a result of any assignment or subletting shall be paid to Landlord as Additional Rent within thirty (30) days after receipt thereof by Tenant. All the foregoing notwithstanding, Tenant shall not enter into any lease, sublease, license, concession or other agreement for the use, occupancy or utilization of the Premises or any portion thereof, which provides for a rental or other payment for such use, occupancy or utilization based in whole or in part on the income or profits derived by any person or entity from the property leased, used, occupied or utilized. Any such purported lease, sublease, license, concession or other agreement shall be absolutely void and ineffective as a conveyance of any right or interest in the possession, use or occupancy of any part of the Premises. Any consent by Landlord hereunder shall not constitute a waiver of strict future compliance by Tenant with the provisions of this Section 19. For those subleases or assignments that require Landlord's approval, Tenant shall pay Landlord's reasonable out-of-pocket attorney fees for review of requested subleases or assignment, not to exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) for each review.

Landlord shall respond to Tenant's request for consent to an assignment or sublease under this Section 19 within thirty (30) days of Landlord's receipt of such notice by either (i) consenting to such transfer, or (ii) denying consent to such transfer, which denial shall be accompanied by a reasonable explanation therefor. If Landlord fails to respond to Tenant's request within such thirty (30) day period and such failure continues for more than five (5) days after a second written notice, then Landlord shall be deemed to have consented to such assignment or sublease in Tenant's notice.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, without the consent and approval of Landlord, Tenant shall have the right to the following "Permitted Assignments and Subleases" without Landlord's prior consent: (a) Tenant may permit employees of the Federal government and companies and individuals working with Tenant to use and occupy the Premises, provided that same shall not alter or delay Tenant's payment obligations for rent hereunder; or (b) upon notice to Landlord, Tenant may assign this Lease or sublease the Premises or any portion thereof to any subsidiary, affiliate or parent of Tenant or in the event of a merger or consolidation of Tenant or a sale of all or substantially all of the Tenant's assets or a majority of Tenant's stock or other ownership or equity interests, or (c) effectuate a transfer in connection with a sale, divestment, spin-off, split-off or other disposition by Tenant of any assets or businesses of Tenant, or the stock or other ownership or equity interests in Tenant (whether or not resulting in a change in control). For the purposes hereof, "affiliate" shall mean an entity or individual which controls, is controlled by or is under the common control with Tenant.

19.1 Desk Sharing. Tenant shall have the right to enter into desk-sharing licenses or arrangements with entities or individuals with which it has a business relationship or who are working on projects with Tenant, Tenant's business invitees and Tenant's customers (including, without limitation, FAA government employees and employees of third party businesses whose co-location with Tenant at the Premises facilitates Tenant's business operations or its ability to meet its obligations to customers), without the consent of Landlord and without constituting a violation of the herein contained subletting or assignment obligations, provided the use and occupancy of any such entities or individuals working in the Premises under any such an arrangement are subject to all of the terms and conditions of this Lease.

20. Default; Remedies; Bankruptcy of Tenant. Any one or more of the following events shall constitute an "Event of Default" hereunder, at Landlord's election: (a) the adjudication of Tenant as a bankrupt or insolvent, unless such adjudication is vacated within thirty (30) days; (b) the filing of a voluntary petition proposing the adjudication of Tenant (or any guarantor of Tenant's obligations hereunder) as a bankrupt or insolvent, or the reorganization of Tenant (or any such guarantor), or an arrangement by Tenant (or any such guarantor) with its creditors, whether pursuant to the Federal Bankruptcy Code or any similar federal or state proceeding, unless such petition is filed by a party other than Tenant (or any such guarantor) and is with-drawn or dismissed within thirty (30) days after the date of its filing; (c) the admission, in writing, by Tenant (or any such guarantor) of its inability to pay its debts when due; (d) the appointment of a receiver or trustee for the business or property of Tenant (or any such guarantor), unless such appointment is vacated within thirty (30) days of its entry; (e) the making by Tenant (or any such guarantor) of an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, or if, in any other manner not permitted hereunder, Tenant's interest in this Lease shall pass to another by operation of law; (f) the failure of Tenant to pay any Base Rent, Additional Rent or other sum of money when due and such failure continues for a period of ten (10) days after receipt of written notice that the same is past due hereunder; or (g) the default by Tenant in the performance or observance of any covenant or agreement of this Lease (other than a default involving the payment of money), which default is not cured within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice thereof from Landlord, unless such default is of such nature that it cannot be cured within such thirty (30) day period, in which case no Event of Default shall occur so long as Tenant shall commence the curing of the default within such thirty (30) day period and shall thereafter diligently prosecute the curing of same.

Upon the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default, Landlord, with such notice to Tenant as provided for by law or as expressly provided for herein, may do any one or more of the following: (a) intentionally omitted; (b) perform, on behalf and at the expense of Tenant, any obligation of Tenant under this Lease which Tenant has failed to perform and of which Landlord shall have given Tenant notice, the cost of which performance by Landlord, together, with interest thereon at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum (but not more than the maximum allowable legal rate applicable to Tenant), from the date of such expenditure, shall be deemed Additional Rent and shall be payable by Tenant to Landlord upon demand; (c) elect to terminate this Lease and the tenancy created hereby by giving written notice of such election to Tenant in which event Tenant shall be liable for Base Rent, Additional Rent, and other indebtedness that otherwise would have been payable by Tenant during the remainder of the Term had there been no Event of Default in accordance with the terms of Section 21, below, and on notice reenter the Premises, by summary proceedings or other legal means, and remove Tenant and all other persons and property from the Premises, and store such property in a public warehouse or elsewhere at the cost and for the account of Tenant, all in accordance with Applicable Law; and also the right but not the obligation without Landlord being deemed guilty of trespass or becoming liable for any loss or damage occasioned thereby; and also the right but not the obligation, to re-let the Premises for any unexpired balance of the Term, and collect the rent therefor. In the event of such re-letting by Landlord, the re-letting shall be on such terms, conditions and rental as Landlord may deem proper, and the proceeds that may be collected from the same, less the expense of re-letting (including reasonable leasing fees and commissions, attorneys' fees and reasonable costs of renovating the Premises), shall be applied upon Tenant's rental obligation as set forth in this Lease for the unexpired portion of the Term (and Tenant shall be entitled to a credit or refund in the net amount of rent received by Landlord in reletting the Premises or any portion thereof during such period). Tenant shall be liable for any balance that may be due under this Lease, although Tenant shall have no further right of possession of the Premises; and (d) exercise any other legal or equitable right or remedy which it may have at law or in equity. Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (b) above and regardless of whether an Event of Default shall have occurred, Landlord may exercise the remedy described in clause (b) without any notice to Tenant if Landlord, in its good faith judgment, believes it would be materially injured by the failure to take rapid action, or if the unperformed obligation of Tenant constitutes an emergency.

TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, TENANT HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHTS OF REDEMPTION, GRANTED BY OR UNDER ANY PRESENT OR FUTURE LAWS IN THE EVENT OF TENANT'S BEING EVICTED OR DISPOSSESSED FOR ANY CAUSE, OR IN THE EVENT OF LANDLORD'S OBTAINING POSSESSION OF THE PREMISES, BY REASON OF THE VIOLATION BY TENANT OF ANY OF THE COVENANTS AND CONDITIONS OF THIS LEASE, OR OTHERWISE. LANDLORD AND TENANT HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVE TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM BROUGHT BY EITHER PARTY HERETO AGAINST THE OTHER PARTY ON ANY AND EVERY MATTER, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR WITH RESPECT TO THIS LEASE, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, THE RELATIONSHIP OF LANDLORD AND TENANT, THE USE

AND OCCUPANCY BY TENANT OF THE PREMISES, ANY STATUTORY REMEDY AND/OR CLAIM OF INJURY OR DAMAGE REGARDING THIS LEASE.

In the event suit shall be brought by either party hereto against the other to enforce any of the provisions of this Lease, the prevailing party in any such action (as specifically determined by the court presiding over such action) shall be entitled to recover from the other party all of its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with such action, including reasonable outside attorneys' fees, disbursements and actual costs.

Notwithstanding any of the other provisions of this Lease, in the event Tenant shall voluntarily or involuntarily come under the jurisdiction of the Federal Bankruptcy Code and thereafter Tenant or its trustee in bankruptcy, under the authority of and pursuant to applicable provisions thereof, shall have the power and so using same determine to assign this Lease, Tenant agrees that (i) Tenant or its trustee shall provide to Landlord sufficient information enabling it to independently determine whether Landlord will incur actual and substantial detriment by reason of such assignment and (ii) "adequate assurance of future performance" under this Lease, as that term is generally defined under the Federal Bankruptcy Code, shall be provided to Landlord by Tenant and its assignee as a condition of the assignment.

Notwithstanding anything else herein, Landlord shall have the obligation to use reasonable efforts to relet the Premises and to mitigate its damages hereunder.

21. Damages. If this Lease is terminated by Landlord pursuant to Section 20, Tenant shall, nevertheless, remain liable for all Base Rent, Additional Rent and direct damages which may be due or sustained prior to such termination, and all reasonable costs, fees and expenses including, but not limited to, reasonable outside attorneys' fees, costs and expenses incurred by Landlord in pursuit of its remedies hereunder, or in renting the Premises to others from time to time and additional damages (the "Liquidated Damages"), which at Landlord's election shall be either one or a combination of the following: (a) an amount equal to the Base Rent and Additional Rent due or which would have become due from the date of Tenant's default through the remainder of the Term, less than amount of rental, if any, which Landlord receives during such period from others to whom the Premises may be rented (other than any additional rent received by Landlord as a result of any failure of such other person to perform any of its obligations to Landlord), which amount shall be computed and payable in monthly installments, in advance, on the first day of each calendar month following Tenant's default and continuing until the date on which the Term would have expired but for Tenant's default, it being understood that separate suits may be brought from time to time to collect any such damages for any month(s) (and any such separate suit shall not in any manner prejudice the right of Landlord to collect any damages for any subsequent month(s)), or Landlord may defer initiating any such suit until after the expiration of the Term (in which event such deferral shall not be construed as a waiver of Landlord's rights as set forth herein and Landlord's cause of action shall be deemed not to have accrued until the expiration of the Term), and it being further understood that if Landlord elects to bring suits from time to time prior to reletting the Premises, Landlord shall be entitled to its full damages through the date of the award of damages without regard to any Base Rent, Additional Rent or other sums that are or may be projected to be received by Landlord upon reletting of the Premises; or (b) an amount equal to the sum of (i) all Base Rent, Additional Rent and other sums due or which would be due and payable under this Lease as of the date of Tenant's default through the end of the scheduled Term, plus (ii) all commercially reasonable expenses (including broker and reasonable outside attorneys' fees) and value of all vacancy periods projected by Landlord in good faith to be incurred in connection with the reletting of the Premises, plus (iii) commercially reasonable tenant improvement costs for new tenants, minus (iv) the fair market rental value of the Premises over the same period, with such differential discounted at the rate of five percent (5%) per annum, and such resulting amount shall be payable to Landlord in a lump sum on demand, it being understood that upon payment of such liquidated and agreed final damages, Tenant shall be released from further liability under this Lease. Landlord may bring suit to collect any such damages at any time after an Event of Default shall have occurred.

In no event shall Tenant be liable to Landlord for any indirect, consequential or punitive damages under this Lease, except as may be permitted under Sections 38 and 47 hereof. Neither Tenant nor any principal, partner, shareholder, officer or director of Tenant shall have any personal liability under any of the terms, conditions, or covenants of this Lease.

22. Default by Landlord.. If Landlord shall fail to keep or perform any of its obligations under this Lease, then Tenant may (but shall not be obligated to do so) upon the continuance of such failure on Landlord's part for thirty (30) days after Landlord's receipt of written notice from Tenant specifying the failure (or, in the case of any such failure which cannot with due diligence be cured within such 30-day period, then within such additional period, if any, as may be reasonably required by Landlord to cure such failure with due diligence so long as Landlord initiates such cure within such initial thirty (30) day period), and without waiving or releasing Landlord from any obligation, make such payment or perform such obligation and all sums so paid by Tenant in making such payment or performing such obligation, together with interest thereon at ten percent (10%) percent per annum from the date of payment, shall be paid by Landlord to Tenant within thirty (30) days of written demand, and if not so paid by Landlord, Tenant shall have the right to pursue any legal remedies available to it to collect payment, including the right to offset such payment against rent thereafter payable under this Lease. Tenant shall have all of its remedies at law and in equity in respect of Landlord's default. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant may exercise the self-help remedy described above without waiting until the expiration of Landlord's cure period if Tenant, in its good faith judgment, believes it (or its employees or invitees) would be materially injured by the failure to take rapid action, or if the unperformed obligation of Landlord constitutes an emergency.

23. Services and Utilities. Landlord shall provide the following listed services and utilities at all times during the Term (except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Section 23), at no additional cost to Tenant (subject to Section 6.4 herein), namely:

(a) heating, ventilation, and air conditioning ("HVAC") for the Premises in accordance with the HVAC specifications described below during "normal business hours" (i.e., Monday through Friday 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. and Saturday 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., excluding Holidays. "Holidays" shall mean Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, New Year's Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day and Labor Day. Additionally, following any Holiday falling on a Friday or Monday, HVAC shall begin two hours earlier on the next business day than it otherwise would in accordance with the above. After hours, Landlord agrees to set points no cooler than 60 degrees in the winter and no warmer than 78 degrees in the summer.

(i) HEATING: Maintain indoor air at 72 degrees Fahrenheit Dry Bulb temperature, 50 percent relative humidity, when outside air temperature is not less than 10 degrees Fahrenheit Dry Bulb.

(ii) COOLING: Maintain indoor air at 75 degrees Fahrenheit Dry Bulb temperature, 50 percent relative humidity, when outside air temperature does not exceed 95 degrees Fahrenheit Dry Bulb.

(b) electric energy in accordance with Section 24 below;

(c) at least one (1) automatic passenger elevator providing service between the Premises and the main floor lobby, which elevator shall be operational twenty-four (24) hours a day, seven (7) days a week;

(d) access to the Building and Premises on a twenty-four (24) hour per day basis, seven (7) days a week to include a perimeter card key access security system for the Premises and Building (Landlord to provide to Tenant free of charge up to one hundred (100) access cards prior to the Commencement Date, and up to an additional three hundred twenty (320) access cards prior to the Delivery Date);

(e) daily janitorial services to the Common Areas and the Premises, including trash removal, subject to Section 54 below; provided, however, that Tenant shall have the right to escort such janitorial service when accessing the Secure Area (as defined herein);

(f) hot and cold water sufficient for drinking, lavatory toilet and ordinary cleaning purposes from fixtures located within the Premises;

(g) replacement of lighting tubes, lamp ballasts and bulbs for Building standard fixtures;

(h) extermination and pest control when and if necessary;

(i) maintenance of the Common Areas in good condition and operating order and in a manner comparable to office buildings of comparable age, size and location in the Herndon, Virginia submarket.

Landlord shall provide all of the foregoing services at the same level and in the same manner as such services are provided at office buildings of comparable age, size and location in the Herndon, Virginia area.

At times other than the normal business hours, central air conditioning and heating shall be provided to Tenant, at Tenant's expense calculated at Landlord's actual cost to provide such services, as reasonably determined by Landlord and currently $75.00 per hour per floor), with no Landlord markup, upon prior notice from Tenant given by 4:00 p.m. on the business day on or before the day on which Tenant needs such after-hours services, which for the purposes of this provision may be sent by Tenant to Landlord's property manager by electronic mail to Nick@Zumot.net. The cost associated with after-hours central air conditioning and heating shall be billed to Tenant as Additional Rent on a monthly basis based upon the number of hours of after-hours HVAC requested by Tenant. For purposes of any supplemental cooling unit, the additional cost shall be determined by separate metering or a mutual agreement of approximate usage.

Landlord reserves the right, upon reasonable prior written notice to Tenant, to temporarily stop service of the HVAC, elevator, plumbing and electric systems, when necessary, by reason of accident, or emergency, or for repairs, alterations, replacements, or improvements, which in the reasonable judgment of Landlord are desirable or necessary to be made, until the repairs, alterations, replacements, or improvements shall have been completed. Landlord shall have no responsibility or liability for failure to supply HVAC, elevator, plumbing, cleaning, and electric service, when prevented from so doing by laws, orders, or regulations of any Federal, State, County or Municipal authority or by strikes, accidents, acts of civil unrest, terrorism, natural or man-made disaster or by any other cause whatsoever beyond Landlord's control. Landlord's obligations to supply HVAC are subject to Applicable Laws as to energy conservation and other such restrictions. In the event that Tenant should require supplemental HVAC for the Premises, any maintenance repair and/or replacement required for such supplemental service shall be performed by Tenant at its cost and expense.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, if the Premises, or any portion thereof, are made untenantable as a result of any interruption, interference or diminishment of any service or utility that Landlord is required to provide under this Lease ("Service Failure"), then Tenant, as its sole remedy, shall be entitled to receive an abatement of Rent payable hereunder in accordance with Section 11.2 herein.

24. Electric Current. Throughout the Term, Landlord will supply the Premises with electric current sufficient for normal office operations (including office equipment and appliances) on a twenty-four (24) hour basis at no additional charge (subject to the terms herein). Tenant shall not at any time overburden or exceed the capacity of the mains, feeders, ducts, conduits, or other facilities by which electric and similar utilities are supplied to, distributed in, or serve the Premises. Per floor Receptacle power capacity is approximately 10 VA / SF (Includes 5 VA / SF of general purpose and 5 VA / SF of computer grade (Isolated ground, K-13 rated Xfmrs). If Tenant desires to install any equipment which shall require electricity in excess of the above stated amount, such installation shall be subject to Landlord's prior written approval of Tenant's plans and specifications therefor, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. If such installation is approved by Landlord, all costs for providing such additional electricity shall be paid by Tenant.

25. Back-up Generator. Tenant shall have the right to install a UPS system and emergency stand-by battery system, and a generator for emergency situations (a "Generator") at a location at the Building or on the Land surrounding the Building mutually acceptable to Landlord and Tenant, provided that Tenant shall be solely responsible for all costs of installation, operating, maintenance, repair and replacement of the Generator. There shall be no additional charge to Tenant for the right to operate a Generator during the Term or any renewals, other than electricity (without any additional mark-up by Landlord). Prior to the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease Term, Tenant may, at its option, remove the Generator and, if so removed, repair any damage to the Building or the Land as a result of such removal.

26. Telephone and Telecommunications. Landlord has arranged for the installation of telephone service within the Building to the ground floor telephone utility closet and conduit to the ground floor telephone and electrical riser closets. Tenant shall be responsible for contacting the utility company supplying the telephone service and arranging to have such telephone facilities as it may desire to be extended and put into operation in the Premises, including without limitation, obtaining a low voltage permit for phone and data wiring. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that all telephone and telecommunications services desired by Tenant shall be ordered and utilized at the sole expense of Tenant. All costs related to installation and the provision of such service shall be borne and paid for directly by Tenant and Tenant shall obtain the requisite jurisdictional permit(s) if required. Landlord will allow Tenant access, based on Tenant's Proportionate Share, for wiring, including electric, data and telecom, within the Building's designated public areas and designated chases, risers and telecommunications closets. In addition, subject to Landlord's approval (which approval shall not be unreasonably, conditioned, delayed, or withheld as to location and plans and specifications), Tenant shall have the right to install its own fiber and communication services through, at Tenant's option and based on Tenant's Proportionate Share, (i) existing conduits, and/or (ii) new conduits to be installed by Tenant, including, without limitation, the right to run cable, conduits, wiring and other lines to or through other portions of the Property and from a public right of way to the Premises. Tenant shall not be required to execute a separate access agreement for fiber.

In the event Tenant wishes to utilize the services of a telephone or telecommunications provider whose equipment is not servicing the Building at such time Tenant wishes to install its telecommunications equipment serving the Premises ("Provider"), no such Provider shall be permitted to install its lines or other equipment without first securing the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Landlord shall not impose any additional cost or fee on Tenant with respect to such installation. Prior to the commencement of any work in or about the Building by the Provider, the Provider shall agree to abide by such rules and regulations, job site rules, and such other requirements as reasonably determined by Landlord to be necessary to protect the interest of the Building and Property, the other tenants and occupants of the Building, if applicable, and Landlord, including, without limitation, providing security and proof of insurance in such form and amount as reasonably determined by Landlord. Each Provider must be duly licensed, insured and reputable. Landlord shall incur no expense whatsoever with respect to any aspect of Provider's provision of its services, including without limitation, the costs of installation, materials and service.

In addition, Tenant, at Tenant's cost and expense, shall have the right to install a security system in the Premises that is compatible with (and ties into) the security system at the Building in order to enable Tenant to utilize a single security or access card provided by Landlord to access both the Building and the Premises, and Landlord shall reasonably cooperate and assist Tenant with the integration of Tenant's security system with the Building's security system.

27. Intentionally Deleted..

28. Inability to Perform. Landlord and Tenant shall be excused from performing an obligation or undertaking provided for in this Lease so long as such performance is prevented or delayed, retarded or hindered by an Act of God, force majeure, fire, earthquake, flood, explosion, action of the elements, war, invasion, insurrection, riot, mob violence, sabotage, inability to procure or a general shortage of labor, equipment, facilities, materials or supplies in the open market, failure of transportation, strike, lockout, action of labor unions, a taking by eminent domain, requisition, laws, orders of government, or of civil, military or naval authorities, inability to obtain, or delays in obtaining, permits or other governmental approvals, or any other cause whether similar or dissimilar to the foregoing, not within the reasonable control of Landlord or Tenant, as applicable, including delays in obtaining permits or governmental approvals or delays for adjustments of insurance (collectively, "Force Majeure"); provided, however, that no such event or cause shall relieve Tenant of its obligations hereunder to make full and timely payments of rents as provided herein nor relieve Landlord of its obligations hereunder to pay any sums due Tenant as provided herein (including the Furnishing Allowance and overpayments of Additional Rent under Section 6 above); provided, however, in the event of a Force Majeure event that continues for more than thirty (30) consecutive days or for an aggregate of sixty (60) days or more, Tenant has the right but not the obligation to terminate the Lease.

29. No Waivers. The failure of Landlord or Tenant to insist, in any one or more instances, upon a strict performance of any of the covenants of this Lease, or to exercise any option herein contained, shall not be construed as a waiver, or a relinquishment for the future, of such covenant or option, but the same shall continue and remain in full force and effect. The receipt by Landlord or Tenant of rent, with knowledge of the breach of any covenant hereof, shall not be deemed a waiver of such breach, and no waiver by Landlord of any provision hereof shall be deemed to have been made unless expressed in writing and signed by Landlord or Tenant, as applicable.

30. Access to Premises and Change in Services. Landlord shall have the right, without abatement of rent (except as otherwise set forth herein) and subject to compliance with Tenant's security protocols, to enter the Premises with 24 hours written notice to examine the same, or to make such repairs and alterations as Landlord shall deem necessary for the safety and preservation of the Building, and also to exhibit the Premises to be let (only during the last six (6) months of the Term); provided, however, that except in the case of emergency, in which case Landlord shall make commercially reasonable attempts to provide verbal notice, and shall be permitted to gain immediate entry for purposes of protecting life or property. Landlord shall also have the right at any time, without the same constituting an actual or constructive eviction and without incurring any liability to Tenant therefor (except as set forth below), to change the arrangement and/or location of entrances or passageways, doors and doorways, and corridors (except on any full floors occupied by Tenant), stairs, toilets, elevators, or other parts of the Building, and to change the name by which the Building is commonly known and/or its mailing address, in which case Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for the reasonable costs incurred by Tenant resulting from such change within ten (10) days after receipt of an invoice therefor; provided, however, any such changes shall not unreasonably interfere with Tenant's access to, or use and occupancy of, the Premises as permitted hereunder.

31. Estoppel Certificates. Tenant agrees, at any time and from time to time (but no more than once per year during the Term, unless in connection with a sale or financing of the Building), upon not less than thirty (30) days' prior request by Landlord to execute, acknowledge and deliver to Landlord an estoppel certificate substantially in the form reasonably agreed to by the Tenant (to the extent the information contained therein is accurate) or such other reasonable form requested by Landlord which certifies (to the extent accurate) that this Lease is unmodified and in full force (or if there have been modifications, that the same is in full force and effect as modified and stating the modifications) and the dates through which the rent and other charges have been paid in advance, if any, and stating whether or not to the best knowledge of the signer of such certificate Landlord is in default in performance of any covenant, agreement or condition contained in this Lease and, if so, specifying each such default of which the signer may have knowledge, it being intended that any such statement delivered hereunder may be relied upon by Landlord's lender, Landlord's prospective lender or a prospective purchaser of the Building. Landlord agrees to cooperate similarly in the event Tenant requires such certification.

32. Subordination. Subject to the terms of this Section 32, Tenant accepts this Lease, and the tenancy created hereunder, subject and subordinate to the lien of any current or future mortgages, overleases, leasehold mortgages or other security interests now or hereafter a lien upon or affecting the Building or the Property or any part thereof (herein a "Mortgage"), and Tenant shall, at any time hereafter, within fifteen (15) business days after written request from Landlord, execute a Subordination, Non-Disturbance Agreement ("SNDA") required by any mortgagee or overlandlord of a Mortgage (herein a "Mortgagee"), and reasonably acceptable to Tenant, for the purpose of subjecting or subordinating this Lease and the tenancy created hereunder to the lien of any such Mortgage, and the failure of Tenant to execute any such instruments, releases or documents shall constitute a default hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the subordination of this Lease to any current or future Mortgage pursuant to this Section 32 is contingent upon Tenant's receipt of a duly executed commercially reasonably Non-Disturbance Agreement for the benefit of Tenant from such Mortgagee that is reasonably acceptable to Tenant. Landlord represents that, as of the time of execution of this Lease, there is no current mortgage or similar debt on the Building.

33. Attornment. In the event of (i) a transfer of Landlord's interest in the Leased Premises; (ii) the termination of any ground or underlying lease; or (iii) the purchase of the Premises or Landlord's interest therein in a foreclosure sale or by deed in lieu of foreclosure under any mortgage or the purchase pursuant to a power of sale contained in any mortgage, then in any of such events Tenant shall, pursuant to the applicable SNDA, attorn to and recognize the transferee or purchaser of Landlord's interest or the lessor under the terminated ground or underlying lease, as the case may be, as Landlord under this Lease for the balance then remaining of the Term, and hereafter this Lease shall continue as a direct lease between such person as "Landlord", and Tenant as "'Tenant". Any new landlord shall be obligated to cure any continuing default within thirty (30) days of taking title to the Building.

34. Notices. All notices and other communications to be made hereunder shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the addresses set forth below by any of the following means: (a) personal service or receipted courier service; (b) telecopying (e.g., electronic mail) (if confirmed in writing sent by the methods specified in clauses (a) or (c) of this Section or if confirmed via "Delivery Receipt" or "Read Receipt" as commonly used and understood in electronic mail), or (c) nationally-recognized overnight delivery service. Such addresses may be changed by notice to the other parties given in the same manner as provided above. Any notice or other communication sent pursuant to clause (a) or (b) hereof shall be deemed received upon such personal service or upon dispatch by electronic means, and if sent pursuant to subsection (c) the next succeeding business day following deposit with such nationally recognized overnight delivery service.

If to Landlord: Woodland Partners I, LLC
c/o Zumot Real Estate Management, Inc.
1356 Beverly Rd Suite 250
McLean, Virginia 22101
Attn: Rajai S. Zumot
Email: RZumot@Zumot.net

If to Tenant: See Section 1.1.7

Any party may designate a change of address by written notice to the above parties, given at least ten (10) days before such change of address is to become effective.

35. USA Patriot Act and Anti-Terrorism Laws. Tenant represents and warrants to, and covenants with, Landlord that neither Tenant nor any of its respective constituent owners or affiliates currently are, or shall be at any time during the Term hereof, in violation of any laws relating to terrorism or money laundering (collectively, the "Anti-Terrorism Laws"), including without limitation Executive Order No. 13224 on Terrorist Financing, effective September 24, 2001 and relating to Blocking Property and Prohibiting Transactions With Persons Who Commit, Threaten to Commit, or Support Terrorism (the "Executive Order") and/or the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001 (Public Law 107-56) (the "USA Patriot Act").

36. Tenant's Space.

36.1 Intentionally Deleted.

36.2 Landlord hereby represents and warrants to Tenant that all fire protection, HVAC, electrical and mechanical systems serving the Premises are and will be operational and in good condition and repair as of the Commencement Date with respect to the Fourth Floor, and the Delivery Date with respect to the Third Floor.

36.3 Landlord, at is sole cost and expense, shall complete the mutually agreed upon tenant improvements and deliver a "Turnkey" buildout of the Third Floor of the Premises per the plans and specifications described in Exhibit "A" and Exhibit "A-1" attached hereto, as may be mutually amended from time to time (the "Tenant Improvements"). Landlord shall cause all

Tenant Improvements to be commenced with reasonable promptness after the Effective Date Lease and thereafter duly completed. Promptly following the Effective Date, Landlord shall prepare plans and specifications and the construction drawings for the Tenant Improvements based on Exhibit "A" and Exhibit "A-1" attached hereto, including, without limitation, specifications for Tenant's electrical, special equipment needs and finishes and any other information reasonably required for Landlord to complete the construction drawings required to accompany the permit application. Landlord shall deliver such plans and specifications to Tenant for review and approval within thirty (30) days after the Effective Date. Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing within ten (10) business days of Tenant's receipt of such plans and specifications as to whether Tenant approves or disapproves of same, stating the respects in which same fail to conform with Tenant's requirement. Landlord, within five (5) business days after receipt of such written notice from Tenant, shall revise and resubmit the plans and specifications to Tenant for review and approval, which approval shall be delivered within five (5) business days after Tenant's receipt of such revised plans and specifications. This procedure shall be repeated until the plans and specifications are mutually acceptable to Landlord and to Tenant. When Landlord and Tenant have agreed upon the plans and specifications (the "Final Plans"), Landlord shall apply for any required permits, diligently prosecute the issuance of the permits, and then finish or cause the Tenant Improvements to be finished in accordance therewith and in compliance with all Applicable Laws.

36.4 Landlord shall make the furniture, fixtures, and equipment located on the Fourth Floor and in 2350 Corporate Park Drive as described in Exhibit "G" hereto ("FF&E") available for Tenant's use in the Premises during the Term. Landlord, at its sole cost and expense, shall relocate any FF&E to the Premises. Upon expiration or earlier termination of the Term, Tenant shall surrender the FF&E to Landlord in its then existing condition. If, during the Term, Tenant no longer wishes to use any portion of the FF&E, then at Tenant's request, Landlord, at Landlord's expense, will remove such items of FF&E from the Premises.

36.5 Landlord shall provide Tenant with an allowance in an amount not to exceed Twenty-One Dollars ($21.00) per rentable square foot of the Premises (the "Furnishing Allowance") to reimburse Tenant for costs incurred in connection with furniture, fixtures, equipment, cabling and wiring, security systems, audio/visual equipment, and signage for the Premises. The Furnishing Allowance shall be payable by Landlord directly to Tenant's vendors and contractors within thirty (30) days after Landlord's receipt of reasonable documentation from Tenant (including receipts or invoices) evidencing the applicable costs incurred by Tenant; provided, however, that if an Event of Default by Tenant exists at the time such payment would otherwise be due, Landlord's obligation to fund the Furnishing Allowance shall be deferred until such Event of Default has been cured. If Tenant satisfies the conditions above and Landlord fails to disburse any portion of the Furnishing Allowance within such thirty (30) day period, then Tenant shall have the right to offset the amount of the unpaid portion of the Furnishing Allowance against rent due hereunder until the unpaid portion is fully recouped by Tenant.

36.6 Landlord shall, at Landlord's cost and expense, perform cosmetic and code compliant renovations of the restrooms ("Restroom Work") and elevator lobbies/common corridors ("Common Corridor Work") on any floor of the Building which Tenant now or hereafter occupies at least fifty percent (50%) of the rentable square footage (collectively, "Landlord's Work"), such work to include paint, updated lighting, and carpet replacement, where applicable, which is mutually acceptable to Landlord and Tenant. Code compliance of Landlord's Work shall be based upon Tenant's final approved plans for the Premises. Landlord's Work shall be completed on the Third Floor and Fourth Floor by July 1, 2026. Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to the Third Floor and Fourth Floor only, if Landlord fails to complete (i) the Restroom Work by July 1, 2026 (other than due to a Tenant Delay), then following the Full Rent Commencement Date, Tenant shall be entitled to an abatement of Rent in the amount of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) per day for each day after July 1, 2026 until the Restroom Work is completed or (ii) the Common Corridor Work by September 1, 2026 (other than due to a Tenant Delay), then following the Full Rent Commencement Date, Tenant shall be entitled to an abatement of Rent in the amount of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) per day for each day after September 1, 2026 until the Common Corridor Work is completed. For the avoidance of doubt, Landlord shall also perform, at its sole cost and expense, Landlord's Work on any floor of the Building which Tenant occupies at least fifty percent (50%) of the rentable square footage after the Delivery Date.

37. Quiet Enjoyment. Tenant, upon the payment of rent and the performance of all the terms of this Lease, shall at all times during the Term peaceably and quietly enjoy the Premises without any disturbance from Landlord or any other person claiming through Landlord.

38. Vacation of Premises. Tenant shall vacate the Premises at the expiration or earlier termination of the Term. If Tenant fails to vacate within thirty (30) days after such time there shall be payable to Landlord an amount equal to one hundred three percent (103%) of the monthly Base Rent stated in Section 1.1.6 paid immediately prior to the holding over period for each month or part of a month that Tenant holds over (and prorated for any partial month), plus all other payments provided for herein, and the payment and acceptance of such payments shall not constitute an extension or renewal of this Lease; provided, however, that Tenant shall not be obligated to pay such increased Base Rent if Landlord and Tenant are negotiating a renewal of this Lease. After thirty (30) days, the holdover rent shall be increased to one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the monthly Base Rent. In event of any such holdover, Tenant shall be deemed a tenant at sufferance, but subject to the continuing obligations hereinabove stated, and Landlord shall also be entitled to all remedies provided by law for the speedy eviction of tenants, and to the payment of all reasonable out-of-pocket attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in connection therewith.

39. Liability.

39.1 Landlord and its agents, officers, directors and employees shall not be liable to Tenant, its employees, agents, business invitees, licensees, customers, clients, family members or guests for any damage, compensation or claim with respect to the conduct or operation of Tenant's business in the Premises or any claim of loss of business or interruption of operations (or any claim related thereto) for any accident or injury to any person or persons or property in or about the Premises which are caused by the conduct and operation of Tenant's business or by virtue of equipment or property of Tenant in said premises, arising out of or related to managing the Premises or the Building, repairing any portion of the Premises or the Building, the interruption in the use of the Premises, accident or damage resulting from the use or operation (by Landlord and its agents, officers, directors and employees, Tenant, or any other person or persons whatsoever) or failure of elevators, or heating, cooling, electrical or plumbing equipment or apparatus, or the termination of this Lease by reason of the destruction of the Premises, or from any fire, robbery, theft, mysterious disappearance and/or any other casualty, or from any leakage in any part or portion of the Premises or the Building, or from water, rain or snow that may leak into or flow from any part of the Premises or the Building, or from any other cause whatsoever, except as otherwise set forth herein, unless occasioned by the willful misconduct or acts of gross negligence of Landlord, its employees, agents or contractors. In no event shall Landlord or Tenant be liable for punitive or consequential damages. Any goods, property or personal effects, stored or placed by Tenant in or about the Premises or in the Building, shall be at the sole risk of Tenant, and Landlord and its agents, officers, directors and employees shall not in any manner be held responsible therefor unless occasioned by the willful misconduct or acts of gross negligence of Landlord, its employees, agents or contractors. The agents and employees of Landlord are prohibited from receiving any packages or other articles delivered to the Building for Tenant. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary herein, Tenant shall look solely to the estate and property of Landlord in and to the Property (including all rents and sales and insurance proceeds derived therefrom) in the event of any claim against Landlord arising out of or in connection with this Lease, the relationship of Landlord and Tenant, or Tenant's use of the Premises, and Tenant agrees that the liability of Landlord arising out of or in connection with this Lease, the relationship of Landlord and Tenant, or Tenant's use of the Premises.

39.2 Tenant's liability hereunder shall not exceed the amounts of insurance which Tenant is obligated to carry pursuant to the terms of this Lease (whether or not Tenant actually carries such insurance); provided, however, that the foregoing limitation shall not apply with respect to (i) the failure by Tenant to pay the rent due hereunder, (ii) direct damages incurred by Landlord as a result of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or (iii) third party claims that Tenant is obligated hereunder to indemnify Landlord against.

40. Separability. If any term or provision of this Lease or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall, to any extent, be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Lease or the application of such term or provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each term and provision of this Lease shall be valid and be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

41. Indemnification.

41.1 Tenant's Indemnification. Except to the extent Tenant is entitled to indemnification from Landlord pursuant to Section 41.2 below, and subject to the terms of Section 13.3, above, Tenant shall indemnify and hold harmless Landlord and all of its and their respective members, partners, directors, officers, agents and employees from any and all liability, loss, cost or expense arising from all third-party claims resulting from or in connection with:

41.1.1 Tenant's conduct or management of the Premises or of any business therein, or any work or thing whatsoever done (except for the work performed by Landlord under Section 35 above), or any condition created in or about the Premises during the Term of this Lease or during the period of time, if any, prior to the Commencement Date that Tenant may have been given access to the Premises if as a result of acts covered by Section 41.1.2 below;

41.1.2 any act or omission of negligence caused by Tenant or any of its subtenants or its or their trustees, officers, agents, employees or contractors; and

41.1.3 any accident, injury or damage caused by Tenant and occurring in, at or upon the Premises and not resulting from the negligence of Landlord or Landlord's agents, contractors or employees; together with all costs and expenses reasonably incurred or paid by the indemnified party in connection with each such claim or action or proceeding brought thereon, including, without limitation, all reasonable attorney's fees and expenses.

In case any action or proceeding is brought against Landlord and/or any of its and their respective partners, directors, officers, agents or employees and such claim is a claim from which Tenant is obligated to indemnify Landlord pursuant to this Section, Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant of such claim and shall authorize and permit Tenant to assume exclusively the defense and settlement of such claim, at Tenant's sole expense (provided that Landlord may participate in any claim so assumed by Tenant, with counsel of its own choosing and at Landlord's sole expense [not subject to indemnity hereunder]). Landlord shall reasonably cooperate with Tenant in connection with the defense or settlement of a claim assumed by Tenant hereunder, at Tenant's cost. The obligations of Tenant under this Section shall survive termination of this Lease.

41.2 Landlord's Indemnification. Except to the extent Landlord is entitled to indemnification from Tenant pursuant to Section 41.1, above, and subject to Section 13.3, above, Landlord shall indemnify and hold harmless Tenant and all of its and their respective trustees, officers, agents, members, partners, directors and employees from any and all liability, loss, cost or expense arising from all third-party claims resulting from or in connection with any act or omission of gross negligence of Landlord or any of its partners, directors, officers, agents, employees or contractors together with all costs and expenses reasonably incurred or paid by the indemnified party in connection with each such claim or action or proceeding brought thereon, including, without limitation, all reasonable attorney's fees and expenses.

In case any action or proceeding is brought against Tenant and/or any of its and their respective trustees, officers, agents or employees and such claim is a claim from which Landlord is obligated to indemnify Tenant pursuant to this Section, Landlord, upon written notice from Tenant, shall defend such action or proceeding (by counsel reasonably satisfactory to Tenant). The obligations of Landlord under this Section shall survive termination of this Lease.

42. Captions. All headings anywhere contained in this Lease are intended for convenience or reference only and are not to be deemed or taken as a summary of the provisions to which they pertain or as a construction thereof.

43. Brokers. Landlord and Tenant each represent to the other that it has dealt directly with the Broker(s) in connection with this Lease, and that no other broker negotiated this Lease or is entitled to any commissions in connection with this Lease. Landlord shall pay the Broker(s) pursuant to the terms of a separate written agreement by and between Landlord and each of the Broker(s). Landlord and Tenant shall each indemnify and hold the other harmless from and against any claim, damage, cost (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) or liability for brokerage or other commission arising from or out of any breach of the foregoing representation.

44. Recordation. Tenant covenants that it shall not record this Lease or any memorandum of this Lease or offer this Lease or any memorandum of this Lease for recordation. If at any time Landlord or any Mortgagee of Landlord's interest in the Premises shall require the recordation of this Lease or any memorandum of this Lease, such recordation shall be at Landlord's expense. If the recordation of this Lease or any memorandum of this Lease shall be required by any valid governmental order, or if any government authority having jurisdiction in the matter shall assess and be entitled to collect transfer taxes or documentary stamp taxes, or both transfer taxes and documentary stamp taxes on this Lease or any memorandum of this Lease, Tenant shall execute such acknowledgments as may be necessary to effect such recordations and pay, upon request of Landlord, one half of all recording fees and documentary stamp taxes payable on, or in connection with this Lease or any memorandum of this Lease or such recordation.

45. Successors and Assigns. The covenants, conditions and agreements contained in this Lease shall bind and inure to the benefit of Landlord and Tenant, and their respective heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns (subject, however, to the terms of Section 20 hereof).

46. Integration of Agreements. This writing is intended by the parties hereto as a final expression of their agreement and is a complete and exclusive statement of its terms, and all negotiations, considerations and representations between the parties are incorporated. No course of prior dealings between the parties or their affiliates shall be relevant or admissible to supplement, explain, or vary any of the terms of this Lease. Acceptance of, or acquiescence to, a course of performance rendered under this Lease or any prior agreement between the parties or their affiliates shall not be relevant or admissible to determine the meaning of any of the terms or covenants of this Lease. Other than as specifically set forth in this Lease, no representations, understandings, or agreements have been made or relied upon in the making of this Lease.

47. Hazardous Material; Indemnity. Landlord and Tenant further agree to the following:

47.1 As used in this Lease, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

47.1.1 "Environmental Laws" shall mean all federal, state or local statutes, regulations, rules, ordinances, codes, licenses, permits, orders, approvals, authorizations, agreements, ordinances, administrative or judicial rulings or similar items relating to the protection of the environment or the protection of human health, including, without limitation, all requirements pertaining to reporting, licensing, permitting, investigation and remediation of emissions, discharges, Releases or Threats of Releases (as defined below) of Hazardous Materials into the air, surface water, groundwater or land, or relating to the manufacture, processing, distribution, use, treatment, storage, disposal, transport or handling of Hazardous Materials or relating to storage tanks.

47.1.2 "Hazardous Materials" shall mean (i) any substance, gas, material or chemical which is defined as or included in the definition of "hazardous substances", "toxic substances", "hazardous materials", "hazardous wastes" under any federal, state or local statute, law, or ordinance or under the regulations adopted or guidelines promulgated pursuant thereto, including, but not limited to, the Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability Act of 1980, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9061 et seq. ("CERCLA"); the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act, as amended 49 U.S.C. §§ 1801, et seq.; the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 6901, et seq.; (ii) radon gas in excess of four (4) picocuries per liter, friable asbestos, urea formaldehyde foam insulation, petroleum products, transformers or other equipment which contain dielectric fluid containing levels of polychlorinated biphenyls in excess of federal, state or local safety guidelines, whichever are more stringent; and (iii) any other substance, gas, material or chemical, exposure to or release of which is prohibited, limited or regulated by any governmental or quasi-governmental entity or authority that asserts or may assert jurisdiction over the Premises, the Building or the Property.

47.1.3 "Hazardous Materials Inventory" shall mean a comprehensive inventory of all Hazardous Materials used, generated, stored, treated or disposed of by Tenant at the Premises.

47.1.4 "Losses" shall mean all claims, liabilities, obligations, losses (including, without limitation, diminution in the value of the Premises, the Building, or the Property, damages for the loss or restriction on use of rentable or usable space or of any amenity of the Premises, the Building and/or the Property, damages arising from any adverse impact on marketing of space), damages, penalties, fees, actions, judgments, lawsuits, costs, expenses, disbursements, orders or decrees, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' and consultants' fees and expenses.

47.1.5 "Release" means any releasing, spilling, leaking, pumping, pouring, emitting, emptying, discharging, injecting, escaping, leaching, disposing or dumping into soil, surface waters, groundwaters, land, stream sediments, surface or subsurface strata, ambient air and any environmental medium comprising or proximate to and affecting the Premises, the Building or the Property.

47.1.6 "Threat of Release" means a substantial likelihood of a Release which requires action to prevent or mitigate damage to the soil, surface waters, groundwaters, land, stream sediments, surface or subsurface strata, ambient air and any environmental medium comprising or proximate to and affecting the Premises, the Building or the Property.

47.2 Tenant shall not generate, use, manufacture, recycle, handle, store, place, transport, treat, discharge or dispose of any Hazardous Materials at, on, in or near the Premises, the Building or the Property or cause any of the foregoing to occur at, on, in, or near the Premises, the Building or the Property, shall comply with all Environmental Laws in connection with Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises and the Building, and promptly shall take all remedial action, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, but with Landlord's prior approval (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), necessary or desirable to remedy, clean-up and remove the presence of any Hazardous Materials resulting from Tenant's violation of the prohibitions set forth in this sentence or Tenant's failure to comply with Environmental Laws. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not be deemed to be prohibited from using products containing Hazardous Materials so long as such products are commonly found in an office environment and are handled, stored, used and disposed of in compliance with all Environmental Laws (the "Permitted Hazardous Materials"). In addition, Tenant shall (i) obtain, maintain in full force and effect, and comply with, all permits required under Environmental Laws if any, in connection with Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises and the Building; (ii) comply with all record keeping and reporting requirements imposed by Environmental Laws concerning the use, handling, treatment, storage, disposal or release of Hazardous Materials by Tenant on the Premises, the Building and the Property; (iii) report to Landlord any release or discharge of Hazardous Materials within one (1) business day of such discharge or release to the extent Tenant is aware of same; (iv) provide to Landlord copies of all written reports concerning such discharge of Hazardous Materials that are required to be filed with governmental or quasi-governmental entities under Environmental Laws; (vi) maintain and annually update a Hazardous Materials Inventory with respect to Hazardous Materials (other than Permitted Hazardous Materials), if any, used, generated, treated, stored or disposed of at the Premises, the Building and the Property; and (vii) make available to Landlord for inspection and copying, at Landlord's expense, upon reasonable notice and at reasonable times, such Hazardous Materials Inventory and any other reports, inventories or other records required to be kept under Environmental Laws concerning the use, generation, treatment, storage, disposal or release of Hazardous Materials. Landlord agrees to abide by the same restrictions and remediation requirements imposed on Tenant for any such Hazardous Materials.

47.3 Without limitation on any other indemnities by or obligations of Tenant to Landlord under this Lease or otherwise and except for matters for which Tenant is entitled to indemnification from Landlord pursuant to Section 47.4 below, Tenant hereby covenants and agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Landlord from and against any Losses incurred by Landlord as a result of Tenant's breach of any representation, covenant or warranty in this Section 47; or as a result of any third party claim, demand, liability, obligation, right or cause of action, including, but not limited to governmental action or other third party action (collectively, "Claims"), that is asserted against Landlord, the Premises, the Building or the Property as a result of or which arises directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, out of the Release, Threat of Release, discharge, deposit, presence, treatment, transport, handling or disposal of any Hazardous Materials at, on, under, in, about, or from the Premises, the Building or the Property attributable to or arising out of the operations or activities or presence of Tenant or any assignee, sublessee, agent or representative of Tenant at or about the Premises, the Building or the Property. This indemnification by Tenant includes, without limitation, costs incurred in connection with any investigation of site conditions or any cleanup, remediation, removal, or restoration work required by any federal, state or local governmental agency or political subdivision because of the presence of such Hazardous Material in the soil or ground water on or under the Property attributable to or arising out of the operations, activities or presence of Tenant or any assignee, sublessee, agent or representative of Tenant at or about the Premises, the Building or the Property.

47.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 47, in no event shall Tenant be responsible for any Hazardous Materials that existed in the Premises, the Building or the Property prior to the Commencement Date or which was introduced by Landlord or any other tenant or occupant on the Property or any of their respective agents, employees or contractors. Landlord represents and warrants to Tenant that no Hazardous Materials are in the Building or on the Property or have been concealed within, buried beneath, released on or from or removed from the Property at any time prior to the Effective Date. Without limitation on any other indemnities by or obligations of Landlord to Tenant under this Lease or otherwise and except for matters for which Landlord is entitled to indemnification from Tenant pursuant to Section 47.3, above, Landlord hereby covenants and agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Tenant from and against any Losses incurred by Tenant as a result of Landlord's breach of the foregoing representation, or as a result of any Claims asserted against Tenant or the Property as a result of or which arises directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, out of the Release, Threat of Release, discharge, deposit, presence, treatment, transport, handling or disposal of any Hazardous Materials by any party other than Tenant at, on, under, in, about, or from the Property attributable to or arising out of the existence of Hazardous Materials at or about the Property prior to the Commencement Date. This indemnification of Tenant by Landlord includes, without limitation, costs incurred in connection with any investigation of site conditions or any cleanup, remediation, removal, or restoration work required by any federal, state or local governmental agency or political subdivision because of the presence of such Hazardous Materials in the soil or ground water on or under the Property.

47.5 The indemnities, warranties and covenants contained in this Article shall survive termination of this Lease.

48. Several Liability. If Tenant shall be one or more individuals, corporations or other entities, whether or not operating as a partnership or joint venture, then each such individual, corporation, entity, joint venturer or partner shall be deemed to be both jointly and severally liable for the payment of the entire rent and other payments specified herein.

49. Landlord Waiver. Landlord hereby waives any right it may have in Tenant's personal property, trade fixtures, equipment and movable office furniture other than FF&E ("Tenant's Property") located in the Premises or the Building. To the extent Landlord may have a lien on or security interest in Tenant's Property pursuant to this Lease, by law or otherwise, Landlord hereby waives, and agrees not to assert, such lien or security interest. Landlord shall provide to Tenant, within ten (10) days after Tenant's request therefor, a written waiver in form reasonably satisfactory to Tenant and Tenant's lender evidencing Landlord's waiver of any rights it has or may have in Tenant's Property.

50. Deed of Lease. For purposes of Section 55-2, Code of Virginia (1950), as amended, this Lease is and shall be deemed a deed of lease.

51. Definition of "Day" and "Days". As used in the Lease, the terms "day" and "days" shall refer to calendar days unless specified to the contrary; provided, however, that if the deadline established for either party's performance hereunder occurs on a Saturday, Sunday or banking holiday in the Commonwealth of Virginia, the date of performance shall be extended to the next occurring business day.

52. Signage. Landlord shall, at Landlord's expense, provide Tenant with signage on the Building standard lobby directory and any other directory on the Property and suite entry signage on each floor of the Premises. At Tenant's sole cost and expense, and subject to Landlord's reasonable review and approval, Tenant shall have the right to install (i) additional signage upon the top level of the Building facade facing Dulles Toll Road ("Exterior Building Signage"), (ii) monument signage on up to fifty percent (50%) of the monument sign, and (iii) signage in the main lobby elevator bank, as such signage is further described in Exhibit "F" attached hereto. In no event shall any other tenant or occupant in the Building or the Property install signage on the exterior of the Building that is larger than the size of Tenant's Exterior Building Signage during the Term or any renewals thereof.

53. Parking. During the Term of the Lease (and any renewals thereof), and at no charge to Tenant, Landlord shall provide Tenant with the non-exclusive right to use up to four hundred twenty (420) parking spaces (the "Required Parking Spaces"), as further described in Exhibit "E" attached hereto. Further, as Tenant leases additional expansion space in the Building, in addition to the Required Parking Spaces, Landlord shall make additional parking available to Tenant in the Parking Garage (as defined under Exhibit "E") at a ratio of 3.95 parking spaces per 1,000 rentable square footage of the expansion space. The parking garage shall have LED lighting from 5:00am to 10:00pm seven (7) days per week with 24/7 emergency lighting and the surface parking lot shall have LED lighting from dusk to dawn seven (7) days per week. Landlord reserves the right to adopt reasonable rules and regulations relating to the parking facility serving the Building, including requiring secured access thereto, requiring identification stickers or tags and limiting ingress thereto and egress therefrom to registered parking users and invitees of Building occupants. Landlord will use commercially reasonable efforts to enforce Tenant's parking rights (including reserved parking spaces and visitor parking spaces) including the towing of unauthorized vehicles as directed by Tenant. In addition, Landlord, at its sole cost and expense, shall, prior to July 1, 2026, (i) install four (4) EV charging stations in a mutually agreed upon location and (ii) remove the "ManTech" reserved parking signs in the Parking Garage.

54. Secure Area. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, except in the event of an emergency (including, without limitation Article 23), Landlord and its agents, employees, contractors or invitees shall not exercise any right to enter any portion of the Premises that is designed by Tenant in writing to Landlord as a "Secure Area", without Tenant's express written consent, which may be withheld in Tenant's sole and absolute discretion, and then only if accompanied by an employee of Tenant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of an emergency, Tenant agrees to make an employee available to accompany Landlord or its agents during such entry upon reasonable prior notice at any reasonable time during normal business hours and to the extent permitted by authorized safety officials (e.g., police and other fire/emergency officials). Further, Tenant's security requirements require that the Premises be accessed by U.S. Persons only. A "U.S. Person" is an individual who is either a U.S. citizen or who has been lawfully admitted for permanent residence as defined in 8 U.S.C. 1 101 (a)(2) (i.e. a green card holder) or who is a protected individual as defined by Title 8 U.S.C. 1 324(b). The location, installation and maintenance by Tenant of the Secure Area shall comply with all other terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease.

55. Binding Authority . Landlord and Tenant each represent and warrant to the other party that the person executing this Lease is an officer, member or partner of such party, that such party has complied with all applicable laws, rules, and governmental regulations relative to its right to do business in the jurisdiction in which the Building is located, that such party has the full right and authority to enter into this Lease, and that all persons signing on behalf of such party were authorized to do so by any and all necessary or appropriate corporate, company or partnership actions.

56. Governing Law. . This Lease shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia without regard to its conflict of laws doctrines. Landlord and Tenant agree that any action arising out of this Lease shall be brought in the state courts of the Commonwealth of Virginia or the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. Landlord and Tenant hereby submit to the jurisdiction of such courts and agree to waive any objections to jurisdiction and venue, including objections based upon forum non conveniens.

57. Entire Agreement. . This Lease constitutes the entire agreement between Landlord and Tenant regarding the subject matter hereof and supersedes all oral statements and prior writings relating thereto. Except for those set forth in this Lease, no representations, warranties, or agreements have been made by Landlord or Tenant to the other with respect to this Lease or the obligations of Landlord or Tenant in connection therewith. The normal rule of construction that any ambiguities be resolved against the drafting party shall not apply to the interpretation of this Lease or any exhibits or amendments hereto.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

To the extent that any of the following Rules and Regulations, or any Rules and Regulations subsequently enacted conflict with the provisions of the Lease, the provisions of the Lease shall control.

1. Tenant shall not obstruct or permit its agents, clerks or servants to obstruct, in any way, the sidewalks, entry passages, corridors, halls, stairways or elevators of the Building, or use the same in any other way than as a means of passage to and from the offices of Tenant; bring in, store, test or use any materials in the Building which could cause a fire or an explosion or produce any fumes or vapor; make or permit any unlawful noises in the Building; smoke in the elevators, the Premises, the Building or the Common Areas except in the exterior areas specifically designated by Landlord; throw substances of any kind out of the windows or doors, or down the passages of the Building, in the halls or passageways; sit on or place anything upon the window sills; or clean the windows.

2. Water closets and urinals shall not be used for any purpose other than those for which they were constructed; and no sweepings, rubbish, ashes, newspaper or any other substances of any kind shall be thrown into them.

3. Tenant shall not (i) obstruct the windows, doors, partitions and lights that reflect or admit light into the halls or other places in the Building, or (ii) inscribe, paint, affix, or otherwise display signs, advertisements or notices in, on, upon or behind any windows or on any door, partition or other part of the interior or exterior of the Building without the prior written consent of Landlord which shall not be unreasonably withheld. If such consent be given by Landlord, any such sign, advertisement, or notice shall be inscribed, painted or affixed by Landlord, or a company approved by Landlord, but the cost of the same shall be charged to and be paid by Tenant, and Tenant agrees to pay the same promptly, on demand.

4. No contract of any kind with any supplier of towels, water, ice, toilet articles, waxing, rug shampooing, venetian blind washing, furniture polishing, lamp servicing, cleaning of electrical fixtures, removal of waste paper, rubbish or garbage, or other like service shall be entered into by Tenant, nor shall any vending machine of any kind be installed in the Building, without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent of Landlord shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

5. When electric wiring of any kind is introduced, it must be connected as directed by Landlord, and no stringing or cutting of wires shall be allowed, except with the prior written consent of Landlord which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, and shall be done only by contractors approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. No tenants shall lay linoleum or other similar floor covering so that the same shall be in direct contact with the floor of the Premises; and if linoleum or other similar floor covering is desired to be used, an interlining of builder's deadening felt shall be first affixed to the floor by a paste or other material, the use of cement or other similar adhesive material being expressly prohibited.

6. No additional lock or locks shall be placed by Tenant on any door in the Building (except in the Premises, including the Secure Area), without prior written consent of Landlord, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Two keys will be furnished Tenant by Landlord; four additional keys or access cards per 1,000 rentable square footage of the Premises will be supplied to Tenant by Landlord, upon request, without charge; any additional keys requested by Tenant shall be paid for by Tenant. Tenant, its agents and employees, shall not have any duplicate keys made and shall not change any locks without providing copies thereof to Landlord. All keys to doors and washrooms shall be returned to Landlord at the termination of the tenancy, and in the event of any loss of any keys furnished, Tenant shall pay Landlord the cost thereof.

7. Tenant shall not employ any person or persons other than Landlord's janitors for the purpose of cleaning the Premises, without prior written consent of Landlord which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Landlord shall not be responsible to Tenant for any loss of property from the Premises however occurring, or for any damage done to the effects of Tenant by such janitors or any of its employees, or by any other person or any other cause.

8. No vehicles or animals of any kind (other than animals to assist the disabled) shall be brought into or kept in or about the Premises.

9. Tenant shall not conduct, or permit any other person to conduct, any auction upon the Premises; manufacture or store goods, wares or merchandise upon the Premises, without the prior written approval of Landlord, except the storage of usual supplies and inventory to be used by Tenant in the conduct of its business; permit the Premises to be used for gambling; permit to be played any radio, television, recorded or wired music in such a loud manner as to disturb or annoy other tenants; or permit any unusual odors to be produced upon the Premises. Tenant shall not permit any portion of the Premises to be used for the storage, manufacture, or sale of intoxicating beverages, narcotics, tobacco in any form, or as a barber or manicure shop.

10. No awnings or other projections shall be attached to the outside walls of the Building. No curtains, blinds, shades or screens shall be attached to or hung in, or used in connection with, any window or door of the Premises (subject to Landlord's reasonable approval of privacy/blackout blinds on the conference room windows), without the prior written consent of Landlord which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Such curtains, blinds and shades must be of a quality, type, design, and color, and attached in a manner reasonably approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

11. Canvassing, soliciting and peddling in the Building are prohibited, and Tenant shall cooperate to prevent the same.

12. There shall not be used in the Premises or in the Building, either by Tenant or by others in the delivery or receipt of merchandise, any hand trucks except those equipped with rubber tires and side guards, and no hand trucks will be allowed in passenger elevators.

13. Tenant, before closing and leaving its Premises, shall ensure that all entrance doors to same are locked.

14. Landlord shall have the right to prohibit any advertising by Tenant which in Landlord's opinion tends to impair the reputation of the Building or its desirability as a building for offices, and upon written notice from Landlord, Tenant shall refrain from or discontinue such advertising.

15. Landlord hereby reserves to itself any and all rights not granted to Tenant hereunder, including, but not limited to, the following rights which are reserved to Landlord for its purposes in operating the Building:

(a) the exclusive right to the use of the name of the Building for all purposes, except that Tenant may use the name as its business address and for no other purpose;

(b) the right to change the name or address of the Building, without incurring any liability to Tenant for so doing; however, any costs incurred by Tenant (i.e., stationery) shall be the responsibility of the Landlord;

(c) the right to install and maintain a sign or signs on the exterior of the Building, subject to Tenant's signage rights pursuant to Section 52 of the Lease;

(d) the exclusive right to use or dispose of the use of the roof of the Building, subject to Tenant's telecommunications rights pursuant to Section 26 of the Lease;

(e) the non-exclusive right to use the area above the ceiling of the Premises for the purpose of installing and maintaining telecommunications, water lines, utility lines, other conduit, sprinklers, drain lines, ductwork and HVAC connections and any other equipment necessary to provide services to any area in the Building; and

(f) the right to grant to anyone the right to conduct any particular business or undertaking in the Building.

16. As used herein the term “Premises” shall mean and refer to the “Premises” as defined in Section 1 of the Lease, provided same does not interfere with the conduct of Tenant's business.

17. Tenant shall not operate space heaters without the express prior written consent of Landlord in each instance first obtained.
